0 4 Read ITEM B below and answer the question that follows.

ITEM B

Official statistics show that the majority of convicted offenders come from deprived areas. Convicted offenders are more likely to be unemployed and have limited educational qualifications. Crimes of the powerful are less likely to appear in the statistics.

Functionalists argue that social class differences in offending is a result of the working class having fewer opportunities to achieve mainstream goals. Other sociologists argue that the differences are due to selective law creation and enforcement.

Applying material from ITEM B and your knowledge, evaluate sociological explanations of the relationship between social class and offending. [30 marks]

0 6 Read ITEM C below and answer the question that follows.

ITEM C

Postmodernists believe we have entered a new type of society, which is characterised by consumption, diversity, choice and globalisation. Furthermore, postmodernists argue that metanarratives are less useful for explaining how society works today.

However, Marxists and others are particularly critical of the view that we have entered a new type of society.

Applying material from ITEM C and your knowledge, evaluate the view that society today should be described as postmodern. [20 marks]
