1 Daniel, aged 46, has a mental illness and lived with his father until his death a few months ago. Daniel wants to continue to live at home and before he died his father set up a “circle of support” consisting of family and friends, to support Daniel. He also receives support from local health and social care services and an individualised care package has been devised to enable him to remain at home.

2 A nurse was struck off the Nursing and Midwifery Council register after secretly filming for a BBC documentary programme exposing neglect of elderly patients in a hospital. The chair of the panel, said: “In the view of the panel, this was a major breach of the code of conduct. A patient should be able to trust a nurse with his/her physical condition and psychological well-being without confidential information being disclosed to others.”
