TASK

Carry out an investigation of service provision in relation to service users with learning disabilities. Your investigation should address the following:

- The impact of the Special Educational Needs and Disability Order (NI) 2005 (SENDO) on the educational experiences of children with learning disabilities.
- Reasons for the demographic changes in the population of people with learning disabilities.
- The funding mechanisms of the mixed economy of care.
- An evaluation of the voluntary sector providing care for service users with learning disabilities.
- An evaluation of the contribution of the private sector to the lives of service users with learning disabilities.
- An evaluation of community care for people with learning disabilities.
- The needs of service users with learning disabilities and how these might be met.
- The ways in which people with learning disabilities can access services, barriers to access and ways barriers can be broken down.
- The impact of rationing health and social care services on service users with learning disabilities.
- The roles of a range of health and social care practitioners who provide care and support for service users with learning disabilities.
- How methods used to measure the quality of service provision for service users with learning disabilities can contribute to raising standards.

| 1 | of p | re is provided for service users with learning disabilities by a wide rather of the professionals and by a range of sectors within the mixed economy of the accordance with regulations. Settings providing direct care are inspectually to check that the quality of care provision is appropriate. | Marks Remar |

| (d) | There is major concern that following the government's comprehensive spending review the lives of people with learning disabilities will continue to be undervalued and their care underfunded. The reduction in available funds is likely to mean that health and social care services for service users with learning disabilities will be rationed. | ExamineMarks | r OnlyRemark |
