

Cambridge International AS & A Level

GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES & RESEARCH

9239/11

Paper 1 Written Exam

May/June 2024

INSERT

1 hour 30 minutes

INFORMATION

- This insert contains all the resources referred to in the questions.
- You may annotate this insert and use the blank spaces for planning. Do not write your answers on the insert.

This document has 4 pages. Any blank pages are indicated.

The following documents consider issues related to media and communication. Read them both in order to answer all the questions on the paper.

Document A: adapted from Violence against journalists may translate into overall deterioration of human rights, research shows, an article written by Ayaz Khan. It was published in 'Asia Times', a publication covering geo-political news and current affairs across Asia, in 2021. The author is a freelance journalist based in Balochistan (Pakistan) and currently pursuing an MPhil from the University of Karachi (Pakistan), majoring in mass communication.

In 2017, researchers Anita R Gohdes and Sabine C Carey wrote a paper titled "Canaries in a coal-mine?"

Content removed due to copyright restrictions.

into a deterioration of human rights generally.

This will translate

Document B: adapted from Preventing the Death of Independent Journalism, an article written by Leon Willems, published in 'Free Press Unlimited', in 2020. The author is the Director of 'Free Press Unlimited', which is based in Amsterdam (the Netherlands). It is one of the leading press freedom organisations. It supports journalists and media professionals with emergency support, advice, and training in more than 40 countries. The organisation focuses on conflict reporting, safety for journalists, investigative journalism, gender, and youth & media.

Independent journalists play a vital role providing information and promoting political accountability. But they are struggling to do their jobs.

In 2019 alone, the number of unjustified arrests of journalists increased by 12%, to a total of 389.

Content removed due to copyright restrictions.

too late to recognize the importance of their work. We must not wait until it's

BLANK PAGE

Permission to reproduce items where third-party owned material protected by copyright is included has been sought and cleared where possible. Every reasonable effort has been made by the publisher (UCLES) to trace copyright holders, but if any items requiring clearance have unwittingly been included, the publisher will be pleased to make amends at the earliest possible opportunity.

To avoid the issue of disclosure of answer-related information to candidates, all copyright acknowledgements are reproduced online in the Cambridge Assessment International Education Copyright Acknowledgements Booklet. This is produced for each series of examinations and is freely available to download at www.cambridgeinternational.org after the live examination series.

Cambridge Assessment International Education is part of Cambridge Assessment. Cambridge Assessment is the brand name of the University of Cambridge Local Examinations Syndicate (UCLES), which is a department of the University of Cambridge.