There are three sections in this paper: Section A, Section B and Section C. Choose two of these sections and answer one question from each of the sections you have chosen.

You may use a soft pencil for any diagrams, graphs or rough working.

At the end of the examination, fasten all your work securely together.

The number of marks is given in brackets [ ] at the end of each question or part question.

This document consists of 2 printed pages.

Answer two questions, each from a different section.

Section A: The Sociological Perspective

- 1 'The functionalist model of how society works has many limitations and few strengths.' Explain and assess this view. [25]
- 2 'Human behaviour is unpredictable and so it follows that sociology cannot be a science.' Explain and assess this view. [25]

Section B: Sociological Methods

- 3 'Quantitative research methods are superior to qualitative research methods in terms of the objectivity and usefulness of the data collected.' Explain and assess this view. [25]
- 4 'The theoretical approach favoured by the sociologist is the main factor influencing his or her choice of research methods.' Explain and assess this view. [25]

Section C: Social Differentiation and Stratification

- 5 'Class background no longer restricts people's opportunities by limiting them to a particular pattern of life and range of experiences.' How far is this view supported by sociological arguments and evidence? [25]
- 6 'Governments and the wealthy benefit from the existence of the poor and this is the main reason why poverty continues to exist.' Explain and assess this view. [25]
