Changes to syllabus for 2015

www.papacambridge.com The syllabus has been revised. Some changes are significant and are outlined below. You are advised to read the whole of the syllabus before planning your teaching program.

Component 1 Written examination

- In preparation for Component 1, students will devise one piece of drama based on one of three stimuli provided in the pre-release material.
- The pre-release material will include a range of stimuli such as a poem, a picture, a newspaper article, etc.
- In Section A of the question paper, candidates answer 6–8 short-answer questions on the extract from the play (20 marks) and 2-4 questions on their chosen stimulus (10 marks).

Component 2 Coursework

- The individual piece must be a performance of an extract of a play and should last between 3 and 5 minutes.
- The Coursework assessment criteria have been revised and expanded.
- The Individual Candidate Mark Sheet has been updated to reflect the changes.
- The Moderation Sample Cover Sheet should be filled in and sent to Cambridge with the moderation materials.

Significant changes to the syllabus are indicated by black vertical lines either side of the text.

1. Introduction

1.1 Why Choose Cambridge?

Recognition

Cambridge International Examinations is the world's largest provider of international education programs and qualifications for students aged 5 to 19. We are part of Cambridge Assessment, a department of the University of Cambridge, trusted for excellence in education. Our qualifications are recognized by the world's universities and employers.

www.papacambridge.com

Cambridge IGCSE® (International General Certificate of Secondary Education) is internationally recognized by schools, universities, and employers as equivalent in demand to UK GCSEs. Learn more at www.cie.org.uk/recognition

Excellence in Education

Our mission is to deliver world-class international education through the provision of high-quality curricula, assessment, and services.

More than 9,000 schools are part of our Cambridge learning community. We support teachers in over 160 countries who offer their students an international education based on our curricula and leading to our qualifications. Every year, thousands of students use Cambridge qualifications to gain admission to universities around the world.

Our syllabi are reviewed and updated regularly so that they reflect the latest thinking of international experts and practitioners and take into account the different national contexts in which they are taught.

Cambridge programs and qualifications are designed to support students in becoming:

- confident in working with information and ideas their own and those of others
- responsible for themselves, responsive to and respectful of others
- reflective as students, developing their ability to learn
- innovative and equipped for new and future challenges
- engaged intellectually and socially, ready to make a difference.

Support for Teachers

A wide range of materials and resources is available to support teachers and students in Cambridge schools. Resources suit a variety of teaching methods in different international contexts. Through subject discussion forums and training, teachers can access the expert advice they need for teaching our qualifications. More details can be found in Section 2 of this syllabus and at www.cie.org.uk/teachers

Support for Exams Officers

Exams officers can trust in reliable, efficient administration of exam entries and excellent personal support from our customer services. Learn more at www.cie.org.uk/examsofficers

Nonprofit, Part of the University of Cambridge

www.papaCambridge.com We are a nonprofit organization where the needs of the teachers and students are at the core of what w do. We continually invest in educational research and respond to feedback from our customers in order to improve our qualifications, products, and services.

Our systems for managing the provision of international gualifications and education programs for students aged 5 to 19 are certified as meeting the internationally recognized standard for quality management, ISO 9001:2008. Learn more at www.cie.org.uk/ISO9001

1.2 Why Choose Cambridge IGCSE?

Cambridge IGCSEs are international in outlook but retain a local relevance. The syllabi provide opportunities for contextualized learning, and the content has been created to suit a wide variety of schools, avoid cultural bias and develop essential lifelong skills, including creative thinking and problem solving.

Our goal is to balance knowledge, understanding, and skills in our programs and gualifications to enable candidates to become effective students and to provide a solid foundation for their continuing educational journey.

Through our professional development courses and our support materials for Cambridge IGCSEs, we provide the tools to enable teachers to prepare students to the best of their ability and work with us in the pursuit of excellence in education.

Cambridge IGCSEs are considered to be an excellent preparation for Cambridge International AS and A Levels, the Cambridge AICE (Advanced International Certificate of Education) group award, Cambridge Pre-U, and other education programs, such as the US Advanced Placement program and the International Baccalaureate Diploma program. Learn more about Cambridge IGCSEs at www.cie.org.uk/cambridgesecondary2

Guided Learning Hours

Cambridge IGCSE syllabi are designed with the assumption that candidates have about 130 guided learning hours per subject over the duration of the course, but this is for guidance only. The number of hours required to gain the qualification may vary according to local curricular practice and the candidates' prior experience of the subject.

1.3 Why Choose Cambridge IGCSE Drama?

Cambridge IGCSE Drama is accepted by universities and employers as proof of knowledge and understanding of both the theory and practical application of drama.

Through practical and theoretical study, the Cambridge IGCSE Drama syllabus encourages students to understand and enjoy drama by:

- developing their performance skills, both individually and in groups
- understanding the role of actor, director, and designer in creating a piece of theater
- considering ways in which ideas and feelings can be communicated to an audience
- discovering the performance possibilities of plays and other dramatic stimuli
- devising dramatic material of their own.

Prerequisites

Learners beginning this course are not expected to have studied drama previously.

Progression

www.papacambridge.com Candidates who are awarded grades C to A* in Cambridge IGCSE Drama are well prepared to follow courses leading to AS and A Level Drama, or the equivalent.

1.4 Cambridge ICE (International Certificate of Education)

Cambridge ICE is a group award for Cambridge IGCSE. It gives schools the opportunity to benefit from offering a broad and balanced curriculum by recognizing the achievements of candidates who pass examinations in at least seven subjects. To qualify for the Cambridge ICE award candidates are required to have studied subjects from five groups: two languages from Group I and one subject from each of the remaining four groups. The seventh subject can be taken from any of the five subject groups.

Drama is in Group V, Creative, Technical and Vocational Subjects.

Learn more about Cambridge ICE at www.cie.org.uk/cambridgesecondary2

The Cambridge ICE is awarded from examinations administered in the June and November series each year.

Detailed timetables are available from www.cie.org.uk/examsofficers

1.5 How Can I Find Out More?

If You Are Already a Cambridge School

You can make entries for this gualification through your usual channels. If you have any guestions, please contact us at info@cie.org.uk

If You Are Not Yet a Cambridge School

Learn about the benefits of becoming a Cambridge school at www.cie.org.uk/startcambridge. Email us at info@cie.org.uk to find out how your organization can register to become a Cambridge school.

Teacher Support 2.

Support Materials 2.1

www.papaCambridge.com Cambridge syllabi, past question papers, and examiner reports to cover the last examination series are on the Syllabus and Support Materials DVD, which we send to all Cambridge schools.

You can also go to our public website at www.cie.org.uk/igcse to download current and future syllabi together with specimen papers or past question papers and examiner reports from one series.

For teachers at registered Cambridge schools a range of additional support materials for specific syllabi is available online. For Teacher Support go to http://teachers.cie.org.uk (username and password required).

2.2 Resource Lists

We work with publishers providing a range of resources for our syllabi including textbooks, websites, CDs, etc. Any endorsed, recommended, and suggested resources are listed on both our public website and on Teacher Support.

The resource lists can be filtered to show all resources or just those that are endorsed or recommended by Cambridge. Resources endorsed by Cambridge go through a detailed quality assurance process and are written to align closely with the Cambridge syllabus they support.

2.3 Training

We offer a range of support activities for teachers to ensure they have the relevant knowledge and skills to deliver our qualifications. See www.cie.org.uk/events for further information.

Assessment at a Glance 3.

www.papacambridge.com For Cambridge IGCSE Drama, candidates take two mandatory components: Component 1 (Written examination) and Component 2 (Coursework), and are eligible for the award of grades A* to G.

This syllabus contains a mandatory coursework component. Centers must provide written evidence in advance to Cambridge that a member of staff is competent to set and mark the coursework, and that the Center has facilities to record coursework for external moderation. See the Cambridge Administrative Guide for details.

Availability

Both components for this syllabus are available in the June series.

www.papacambridge.com Component 2 (Coursework) is also available in the November series. Candidates wanting to enter their coursework in the November series must have already taken Component 1 (Written examination) in the previous June (2015) series. Results for the syllabus taken in this way will be issued only after the November (2015) series.

Candidates who take both Component 1 and Component 2 in June may not enter the following November examination series.

Detailed timetables are available from www.cie.org.uk/examsofficers

Combining This with Other Syllabi

Candidates can combine this syllabus in an examination series with any other Cambridge syllabus, except:

syllabi with the same title at the same level.

www.papaCambridge.com Syllabus Goals and Assessment Objectives 4.

Syllabus Goals 4.1

The syllabus aims to:

- develop candidates' understanding of drama through practical and theoretical study
- enable candidates to understand the role of actor, director, and designer in creating a piece of theater ۰
- develop candidates' acting skills, both individually and in groups
- enable candidates to develop their skills in devising original drama
- help candidates communicate feelings and ideas to an audience
- foster understanding of the performance process and enable candidates to evaluate the various stages of that process
- encourage enjoyment of drama.

4.2 Assessment Objectives

AO1: Understanding Repertoire

Candidates will be assessed on their ability to demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the possibilities of repertoire, and how to interpret and realize it in a live performance.

AO2: Devising

Candidates will be assessed on their ability to devise dramatic material and reflect on its effectiveness.

AO3: Acting Skills

Candidates will be assessed on their acting skills and their ability to communicate effectively to an audience.

4.3 Relationship between Assessment Objectives and Components

The approximate weightings allocated to each of the assessment objectives are summarized below.

| Assessment objectives         | Component 1Writtenexamination | Component 2Coursework | Weighting for qualification |
|-------------------------------|---------------------------------------|---------------------------|-----------------------------|
| AO1: Understanding Repertoire | 22%                                   | 15%                       | 37%                         |
| AO2: Devising                 | 18%                                   | 15%                       | 33%                         |

| Total                         | 40%                                   | 60%                       | 100%                        |

4.4 Grade Descriptions

www.papaCambridge.com Grade descriptions are provided to give a general indication of the standards of achievement likely to have been shown by candidates awarded particular grades. The grade awarded will depend in practice upon the extent to which the candidate has met the assessment objectives overall. Weakness in one aspect of the examination may be balanced by a better performance in some other aspect.

Grade A

- Candidates recognize and act upon implications for development. They produce flexible and imaginative responses to problems encountered so as to enhance the stated defined purpose in an accomplished manner.
- Candidates identify and develop dramatic material and interpret it effectively through accomplished use of resources, independently evaluating the progress of the work to facilitate its shaping and structuring.
- Candidates act a role with fluency and commitment, demonstrating sensitivity in performance.

Grade C

- · Candidates identify intention and implications competently. Possibilities are identified and tackled with solutions and alternatives that facilitate the achievement of the defined purpose.
- Candidates demonstrate understanding and skill in shaping and structuring dramatic material, reflecting on its effectiveness and adapting work competently.
- Candidates act a role with fluency, demonstrating competence in performance.

Grade F

- Candidates understand simple ways of creating performance from a given starting point.
- Candidates demonstrate an ability to devise material and, with close guidance, reflect on their work to shape and structure it at a basic level.
- Candidates act a role with some fluency.

5. Description of Components

5.1 Component 1 Written Examination

2 hours, 30 minutes, 80 marks

Externally assessed

The questions on this paper relate to the pre-release material, which is sent to Centers in the December preceding the examination. The pre-release material can be sent only to Centers that have provided estimated entry information. See the Cambridge Administrative Guide for full details.

The pre-release material consists of:

• three stimuli, such as short titles, poems, pictures, songs, historical events, stories, etc. Candidates should work in groups of between two and six performers to devise and perform a piece of drama based on one of the stimuli. The piece should last approximately 15 minutes. In the Written examination candidates will be required to reflect on, and evaluate, aspects of their practical work.

Note: the stimuli on the pre-release material for Component 1 may not be used as a basis for the devised group piece on Component 2.

• an extended extract from a play (or an abridged version of an entire play) taken from repertoire from a variety of genres, countries, and periods. Candidates should study the extract to enable them to understand both the text and the practical aspects of production. It is recommended that they perform it, at least informally. Candidates will not be assessed on their performance of the play.

A clean copy of the pre-release material will be provided in the examination.

The question paper is structured as follows:

- Section A (30 marks) Candidates answer 6–8 short-answer questions on the extract from the play (20 marks) and 2–4 questions on the piece devised from their chosen stimulus (10 marks). Candidates must answer all questions in this section.
- Section B (25 marks) Candidates answer one longer-answer question from a choice of three on the extract from the play.
- Section C (25 marks) Candidates answer one longer-answer question from a choice of three on the drama they have devised from their chosen stimulus.

Candidates are advised to divide their time equally between the three sections.

In all three sections of the question paper, the questions assume that candidates have performed both the extract from the play and the piece they have devised based on their chosen stimulus. Candidates' answers should show practical and theoretical understanding of the pieces they have performed.

Questions will cover a variety of aspects of:

- acting (e.g., interaction, pacing, physicality, proxemics, role, vocal expression*)
- devising (e.g., characterization, contrast, structure, tension*)
- directing (e.g., advice to actors, directorial concept, mood, staging*)
- design (costume and make-up, lighting, props, scenography, set, sound).
- * These examples are not exhaustive and candidates should also be familiar with other dramatic features as appropriate. A selective glossary of dramatic and theatrical terms is provided in Appendix B.

www.papaCambridge.com Candidates should consider the following points in relation to the extract from the play and their choose stimulus:

- the use of suitable approaches to interpret the extract/stimulus
- how meaning can be communicated to an audience
- appropriate use of resources to facilitate effective performance
- the reasons behind the choices they have made and how successful these choices were in performance.

5.2 Component 2 Coursework

Internally assessed and externally moderated

Each candidate submits a total of three pieces of practical work: one individual piece and two group pieces. Candidates must have the opportunity to produce more than three pieces of practical work during the course so that there is a choice of pieces to submit and their best work may be selected.

One individual piece:

one performance of an extract from a play*.

The individual piece must last between 3 and 5 minutes.

Two group pieces:

- one performance of an extract from a play*
- and one original devised piece**.

Each group piece must last no longer than 15 minutes and must allow each candidate broadly equal exposure. The prescribed group size is between two and six candidates.

Candidates will be assessed individually on: their practical understanding of repertoire; their ability to devise and reflect on performance material; their acting skills and ability to communicate effectively to an audience.

All work must be intended for live performance to an audience and staged in an appropriate performance space. While performances should be video recorded for moderation purposes, the pieces produced should not be conceived for film or television performance.

Each candidate's work must be marked according to the assessment criteria provided in this booklet. Marks and supporting comments must be entered on the Individual Candidate Mark Sheet (0428/ICMS) (see Appendix A). A sample of candidates' work must then be sent to Cambridge for external moderation. See Section 6, 'Coursework: Recordings, Marking, and Moderation' for full details.

*Guidance on repertoire pieces

Repertoire should be taken from existing and already published plays for the stage, not TV drama, films, novels, or unpublished works. Plays should be chosen by the teacher according to available resources and candidates' abilities and interests.

Teachers are advised to select extracts from full-length stage plays, not mini-plays written specifically for use in the classroom. This is to ensure that each candidate has the opportunity to demonstrate understanding of the style of the drama and the context of his/her role in the play as a whole.

**Guidance on the group original devised piece

www.papaCambridge.com The group original devised piece must be based on a stimulus of the teacher's choosing. Teachers may select the same or a different stimulus for each group in the class depending on the abilities and interests of the candidates. The stimulus used should be noted on each Individual Candidate Mark Sheet when submitting the coursework to Cambridge.

Note: the stimuli on the pre-release material for Component 1 may not be used as a basis for the devised piece on Component 2.

The following are examples of suitable stimuli:

- a piece of music, a newspaper article, a picture/photograph, a poem, a sculpture
- global, national, or local issues, e.g., climate change, war and peace, poverty and inequality, culture and identity
- performance styles, e.g., children's drama, comedy of manners, Commedia dell'Arte, documentary theater, forum theater.

This list is not exhaustive and teachers are free to use any material that is appropriate to this level of examination and that enables candidates to devise and perform to the best of their abilities.

Teacher Involvement in the Working Process

Candidates should undertake coursework with the guidance and ongoing supervision of their teachers. The amount of teacher guidance will vary depending on the kinds of work. During the assessment of coursework, teachers may challenge candidates on their use of ideas and the crafting of the drama. They may also act as director for the group performance of the piece of repertoire.

While the teacher selects a stimulus for each group, the devised piece must be the original work of the candidates and they must decide on the subject matter, style, characterization, structure, and intention of the pieces. However, they are not expected to work in isolation, and teachers may support, challenge, critique, or direct as necessary during the process.

Teachers must:

- select appropriate repertoire and stimuli for candidates
- set and/or negotiate coursework tasks
- supervise the work throughout to monitor individual progress
- ensure that the work is completed according to the requirements of the syllabus and that it can be assessed in line with the assessment criteria and procedures.

DVD recordings

Centers must record work throughout the course so that candidates' best pieces may be chosen for the coursework submission. The work submitted to Cambridge for moderation should be recorded onto a DVD in either MPEG (.mpg) or QuickTime movie (.mov) format.

Each DVD should have with it:

- the completed Individual Candidate Mark Sheets for all candidates (0428/ICMS)
- a DVD Cover Sheet (0428/DVD)
- a Moderation Sample Cover Sheet (0428/CS)

Copies of these forms are provided in Appendix A and should be photocopied as required.

See Section 6 for full details about the recording, marking, and moderation of coursework.

6. Coursework: Recordings, Marking, and Moderation

This section should be read in conjunction with the Cambridge Handbook.

6.1 Recordings

- The Center must record onto DVD all of the coursework undertaken during the course in order to be able to select each candidate's best work for the final assessment.
- DVD recordings will be accepted only in either MPEG (.mpg) or QuickTime movie (.mov) format. It is helpful if DVDs are chaptered.

Number of DVDs:

- If there is only one group for moderation purposes, (i.e., six or fewer candidates), all the work for the Center should be submitted on one DVD, clearly labeled.
- If there are two or more groups, all the individual pieces should be put on one DVD and all the group pieces on a separate DVD.

Identifying the candidates:

- DVDs must be labeled with Center name and number and full candidate names and numbers. Please do not attach sticky labels to DVDs as they can cause problems when inserted into a DVD player.
- At the beginning of each task, the candidate must identify himself/herself clearly by stating his/her name and, if known at the time of the recording, candidate number. It is essential that the Moderator can easily identify the candidates as they will appear in the piece.

Quality of recordings:

It is essential to produce clear recorded evidence. In particular:

- cameras should be positioned level with the performance space and so that the whole action can be clearly seen. Each candidate must be able to be easily identified by the external moderator
- extraneous noise and echo must be avoided and the sound track must be clearly audible.

Work may be recorded at any time over the two-year course; the Center should rerun any recorded work that does not meet these standards.

6.2 Marking

- Coursework must be marked by the teacher. If there is more than one teacher involved with the internal assessments, the marking must be standardized by the Center (see Section 6.4, 'Moderation'). Note that teachers must be accredited by Cambridge to mark the coursework. Please see the Cambridge Administrative Guide for details.
- For each candidate, an Individual Candidate Mark Sheet (0428/ICMS) must be completed, giving details of the three pieces selected for the final assessment and the marks awarded for each piece.
- For each candidate and for each piece, a mark is awarded for AO1: Understanding repertoire or AO2: Devising, depending on whether the work is an extract from a play or original devised material. A mark is always awarded for AO3: Acting skills.

Using the Assessment Criteria

www.papaCambridge.com As you watch the live performance of the work, make notes that clearly relate to the assessment criteria in Section 6.5 and then make a "best fit" judgment as to which band to place it in. Very often you may see qualities that fit more than one band, so always decide on the overall "best fit". You can trade off the strengths and weaknesses in the work against the criteria in the different bands (comments on these are therefore also helpful for moderation purposes). Last, give a specific mark from your chosen band.

If all the criteria in a band fit your judgment, award the highest mark and check the band above, just in case. If most of the criteria fit your judgment, award a mark nearer the bottom and check the band below, just in case.

The teacher's comments on the Individual Candidate Mark Sheet need to be specific rather than general. They should set out:

- for repertoire: the name of the play and the playwright
- for devised pieces: the stimulus used as a basis for the piece
- the specific contribution of each candidate to the piece
- the mark for each Assessment Objective, as appropriate.

The comments should be detailed enough to support the mark awarded.

6.3 Completing the Individual Candidate Mark Sheets

Individual Piece (Extract from a Play)

- Enter comments and a mark out of 15 for AO1 (Understanding repertoire) using the assessment criteria provided on page 16 of this syllabus. Do not award half marks.
- Enter comments and a mark out of 20 for AO3 (Acting skills) using the assessment criteria provided on page 18 of this syllabus. Do not award half marks.

Group Piece (Extract from a Play)

- Enter comments and a mark out of 15 for AO1 (Understanding repertoire) using the assessment criteria provided on page 16 of this syllabus. Do not award half marks.
- Enter comments and a mark out of 20 for AO3 (Acting skills) using the assessment criteria provided on page 18 of this syllabus. Do not award half marks.

Group Piece (Original Devised)

- Enter comments and a mark out of 30 for AO2 (Devising) using the assessment criteria provided on page 17 of this syllabus. Do not award half marks.
- Enter comments and a mark out of 20 for AO3 (Acting skills) using the assessment criteria provided on page 18 of this syllabus. Do not award half marks.

When all the assessments have been completed, add together the marks for all three pieces to give a total out of 120. Then work with your exams officer to make sure that the total mark for each candidate is submitted to Cambridge according to the instructions in the Cambridge Administrative Guide.

Please double check all additions and transfers as even small errors create problems.

6.4 Moderation

A. Internal Moderation

www.PapaCambridge.com If more than one teacher in a Center is involved in the internal assessments, arrangements must be made within the Center for all candidates to be assessed to a common standard. The sample the Center submits to Cambridge should include the marking of each teacher. Please contact Cambridge if you require guidance on internal moderation.

The Center assessments are then subject to external moderation.

B. External moderation

External moderation of internal assessment is carried out by Cambridge.

- Centers must submit the internally assessed marks of all candidates to Cambridge.
- Centers must also submit the internally assessed work of a sample of candidates to Cambridge. The Cambridge Administrative Guide, available on our website, provides details of which candidates are to be included in the sample.

The deadlines and methods for submitting internally assessed marks and work are in the Cambridge Administrative Guide, available on our website.

Centers must send the following to Cambridge in one envelope together with the sample of work for moderation:

- a completed Individual Candidate Mark Sheet (0428/ICMS—see Appendix A) for all candidates, including those not in the sample
- a DVD Cover Sheet (0428/DVD—see Appendix A)
- a signed printout of the candidates' total marks as submitted to Cambridge
- a completed Moderation Sample Cover Sheet (0428/CS-see Appendix A).

If more than one teacher has assessed the Coursework, the sample should include examples of the marking of each teacher.

C. Keep at the Center

- one complete set of copies of the forms
- all other recorded work until results are issued.

All records and supporting work should be kept until after the publication of results, and the recordings of all other candidates' work should be kept at the Center. Further samples of work may be requested by Cambridge.

6.5 Assessment Criteria

Assessment Criteria for AO1: Understanding Repertoire

www.papaCambridge.com Candidates will be assessed on their ability to demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the possibilities of repertoire, and how to interpret and realize it in a live performance.

This assessment objective applies to the individual piece and the group performance of an extract from a play. The assessment criteria cover three strands:

- The ability to bring a character to life based on understanding of the role and its function in the play from • which it is taken.
- The ability to interpret this role in a manner that demonstrates understanding of the style/genre of the play.
- Understanding of the process of moving from page to stage and contribution to the working process in . order to craft and shape the performance.

Assessment Criteria for AO2: Devising

Candidates will be assessed on their ability to devise dramatic material and reflect on its effectiveness.

This assessment objective applies to the group devised piece. The assessment criteria cover three strands:

- The quality of the individual role that the candidate has devised within the ensemble piece, and the ideas that underpin it.
- The integrity of the individual role and its contribution to the overall piece.
- The ability to engage with the devising process in order to craft and shape the role.

Equality and Inclusion

www.papaCambridge.com Cambridge has taken great care in the preparation of this syllabus and assessment materials to avoid bias of any kind. To comply with the UK Equality Act (2010), Cambridge International Examinations has designed this qualification with the aim of avoiding direct and indirect discrimination.

The standard assessment arrangements may present unnecessary barriers for candidates with disabilities or learning difficulties. Arrangements can be put in place for these candidates to enable them to access the assessments and receive recognition of their attainment. Access arrangements will not be agreed to if they give candidates an unfair advantage over others or if they compromize the standards being assessed.

Candidates who are unable to access the assessment of any component may be eligible to receive an award based on the parts of the assessment they have taken.

Information on access arrangements is found in the Cambridge Handbook which can be downloaded from the website www.cie.org.uk

Language

This syllabus and the associated assessment materials are available in English only.

Grading and Reporting

Cambridge IGCSE Certificate results are shown by one of the grades A*, A, B, C, D, E, F, or G indicating the standard achieved, grade A* being the highest and grade G the lowest. "Ungraded" indicates that the candidate's performance fell short of the standard required for grade G. "Ungraded" will be reported on the statement of results but not on the certificate. The letters Q (result pending), X (no results), and Y (to be issued) may also appear on the statement of results but not on the certificate.

Entry Codes

To maintain the security of our examinations we produce question papers for different areas of the world, known as "administrative zones". Where the component entry code has two digits, the first digit is the component number given in the syllabus. The second digit is the location code, specific to an administrative zone. Information about examination timetables, administrative instructions, and entry codes for your administrative zone can be found in the Cambridge Guide to Making Entries.

www.papacambridge.com Appendix B: Glossary of Dramatic and Theatrical 9. Terms

This glossary is provided for reference only and is not intended to be prescriptive.

| Acting area     | That area within the performance space within which the actor may move in full view of the audience. Also known as the playing area .  |
|-----------------|---|
| Acting style    | A particular manner of acting which reflects cultural and historical influences.  |
| Action          | The movement or development of the plot or story in a play; the sense of forward movement created by the sense of time and/or the physical and psychological motivations of characters.   |
| Analysis        | In responding to dramatic art, the process of examining how the elements of drama—literary, technical, and performance—are used.  |
| Antagonist      | The opponent or adversary of the hero or main character of a drama; one who opposes and actively competes with another character in a play, most often with the protagonist.  |
| Apron           | The area between the front curtain and the edge of the stage.   |
| Arena stage     | Type of stage without a frame or arch separating the stage from the auditorium, in which the audience surrounds the stage area. See also Theatre-in-the-round .  |
| Articulation    | The clarity or distinction of speech.   |
| Aside           | Lines spoken by an actor to the audience and not supposed to be overheard by other characters on stage.   |
| Back projection | A method of projecting images onto a translucent screen from behind. Oftenused for projected scenery or special effects. Because the projector is usuallyclose to the screen, special lenses are needed to ensure that the image seen bythe audience is large enough. |
| Backdrop        | A flat surface the width of the stage, hung upstage of the acting area, upon which scenery is usually painted.  |
| Backlight       | Light coming from upstage, behind scenery or actors, to sculpt and separate them from the background.   |
| Barn doors      | A rotatable attachment consisting of two or four metal flaps (hinged) that is fixed to the front of a Fresnel spotlight to cut off the beam in a particular direction(s).  |
| Bifocal spot    | Profile lantern with two sets of shutters, one of which produces a hard edge, and one a soft edge.   |
| Black box       | A one-room theatre, without a proscenium arch; interior is painted black, including walls, floor, and ceiling, and any drapes are also black.   |
| Blackout        | A lighting cue where all stage lights go off simultaneously.  |
| Blocking        | The path formed by the actor's movement on stage, usually determined by the director with assistance from the actor, and often written down in a script using commonly accepted theatrical symbols. See also Staging .   |
| Box set         | A set with three walls and a ceiling, leaving the fourth wall to be imagined by the actors. The box set represents a real room with doors and windows that work.  |

An autholmay simply suggest "business" to indicate the need for some action at thatpoint in the play.A theory advocated by Aristotle in his Poetics , which attempts to describe the  |
| Catharsis        | A theory advocated by Aristotle in his Poetics , which attempts to describe the feeling of release felt by the audience at the end of a tragedy; the audience experiences catharsis, or is set free from the emotional hold of the action, after experiencing strong emotions and sharing in the protagonist's troubles.   |
| Character        | A person portrayed in a drama, novel, or other artistic piece.  |
| Characterization | How an actor uses body, voice, and thought to develop and portray a character.  |
| Choreography     | The organized movement of actors and dancers to music in a play.  |
| Chorus           | A group of performers who sing, dance, or recite in unison; in Greek drama, the chorus was the group of performers who sang and danced between episodes, narrated off-stage action, and commented on events.  |
| Climax           | The point of greatest intensity in a series or progression of events in a play, often forming the turning point of the plot and leading to some kind of resolution.   |
| Cloth            | A piece of scenic canvas, painted or plain, that is flown or fixed to hang in a vertical position.A backcloth (or backdrop ) hangs at the rear of a scene.A floorcloth is a painted canvas sheet placed on the stage floor to mark out the acting area, or to achieve a particular effect.A frontcloth hangs well downstage, often to hide a scene change taking place behind.  |
| Color filter     | A sheet of plastic usually composed of a colored resin sandwiched between two clear pieces. The colored filter absorbs all the colors of light except the color of the filter itself, which it allows through. A color filter is sometimes known as a "gel", after "gelatin", from which filters were originally made.  |
| Color mixing     | Combining the effects of two or more lighting gels.   |
| Comedy           | A play that treats characters and situations in a humorous way. In Shakespeare's time, a comedy was any play with a happy ending that typically told the story of a likeable character's rise to fortune. In ancient Greece, comedies dealt almost exclusively with contemporary figures and problems. Low comedy is physical rather than intellectual comedy; high comedy is more sophisticated, emphasizing verbal wit more than physical action. |
| Comic relief     | A break in the tension of a tragedy provided by a comic character, a comic episode, or even a comic line.   |
| Concentration    | The actor's focus, also called centering ; focusing on the work at hand, being in character, or being in the moment.   |
| Conflict         | The internal or external struggle between opposing forces, ideas, or interests that creates dramatic tension.   |
| Contrast         | Dynamic use of opposites, such as movement/stillness, sound/silence, and light/darkness.  |
| Cross fade       | Bringing another lighting state up to completely replace the current lighting state.Also applies to sound effects/music. Sometimes abbreviated to Xfade or XF .   |

| Dynamic                                      | The energetic range of, or variations within, physical movement or the difference between levels of sound.  |  |
| End on                                       | Traditional audience seating layout where the audience is looking at the stage from the same direction. This seating layout is that of a proscenium arch theatre. See also Theatre-in-the-round , Thrust , Traverse .  |  |
| Ensemble                                     | The dynamic interaction and harmonious blending of the efforts of the many artists involved in the dramatic activity of theatrical production.  |  |
| Exposition                                   | The part of a play that introduces the theme, chief characters, and current circumstances.  |  |
| Farce  | An extreme form of comedy that depends on quick tempo and flawless timing and is characterized by improbable events and farfetched coincidences; from the French meaning "to stuff".  |  |
| Flashback                                    | In a nonlinear plot, to go back in time to a previous event; a flash forward would move the action into the future.  |  |
| Flat   | A wooden frame, usually covered with painted cloth, used to create walls or separations on stage.   |  |
| Flood  | To wash the stage with general lighting. The name given to a basic box-shaped lantern with a simple reflector used to achieve this effect.  |  |
| Focus  | In lighting, the adjustment of the size and shape of a stage light and/or the direction in which it is aimed. In acting, the act of concentrating or staying in character.  |  |
| Fourth wall                                  | The invisible wall of a set through which the audience sees the action of the play.   |  |
| Fresnel spotlight                            | Adjustable spotlight giving a diffused light, created by the construction of its lens of "concentric circles". Used with Barn doors .  |  |
| Genre  | A category of literary or dramatic composition; drama is a literary genre. Drama is further divided into tragedy, comedy, farce, and melodrama, and these genres, in turn, can be subdivided.   |  |
| Gesture                                      | Any movement of the actor's head, shoulder, arm, hand, leg, or foot to convey meaning.  |  |
| Groundrow                                    | Compartmentalized floodlights set up on the stage floor so as to allow color mixing. Commonly used to light curtains and for color washes. See also Striplights .  |  |

| House lights  | The lights that illuminate the auditorium before and after the performance and during intermission.  |
| Imaging       | A technique that allows performers to slow down and focus individually on an issue. The performers, sitting quietly with eyes closed, allow pictures to form in their minds. These images may be motivated by bits of narration, music, sounds, smells, etc.   |
| Improvisation | The spontaneous use of movement and speech to create a character or object in a particular situation; acting done without a script.  |
| Inflection    | Change in pitch or loudness of the voice.  |
| Interaction   | The action or relationship among two or more characters.   |
| lrony         | An implied discrepancy between what is said and what is meant. There areseveral forms of irony. Verbal irony is when a writer or speaker says one thingand means something else (often the opposite of what is said). When theaudience perceives something that a character does not know, that is dramaticirony. Situational irony can be described as a discrepancy between expectedresults and the actual results. |
| Isolation     | Control of isolated body parts; the ability to control or move one part of the body independently of the rest.   |
| Kinesthetic   | Resulting from the sensation of bodily position, presence, or movement.  |
| Language      | In drama, the particular manner of verbal expression, the diction or style of writing, or the speech or phrasing that suggests a class or profession or type of character.   |
| Lantern       | The generic term for a stage spotlight.  |
| Light set     | A term used to describe a situation where no physical set is used on stage. The "set" is created entirely by means of lighting.  |
| Mannerism     | A peculiarity of speech or behavior.   |
| Melodrama     | A style of play, which originated in the 19th century, relying heavily on sensationalism and sentimentality. Melodramas tend to feature action more than motivation, stock characters, and a strict view of morality in which good triumphs over evil.   |
| Mime          | Acting without words.  |
| Mirroring     | Copying the movement and/or expression or look of someone else exactly.  |
| Monologue     | A long speech made by one actor; a monologue may be delivered alone or in the presence of others.  |
| Mood          | The tone or feeling of the play, often engendered by the music, setting, or lighting.  |
| Motivation    | The reason or reasons for a character's behavior; an incentive or inducement for further action for a character.   |
| Movement      | Stage blocking or the movements of the actors onstage during performance; also refers to the action of the play as it moves from event to event.   |

| Naturalism               | A style of drama that developed in the late 19th century as an attempt to represent real life on stage faithfully and without artifice; the actions of characters tend to be dominated by determinism (societal or environmental forces).  |
| Pace                     | Rate of movement or speed of action.   |
| Parody                   | A mocking or satirical imitation of a literary or dramatic work.   |
| Performanceelements  | Includes acting (e.g., character motivation and analysis, empathy), speaking(breath control, vocal expression and inflection, projection, speaking style,diction), and nonverbal expression (gestures, body alignment, facial expression,character blocking, movement).  |
| Personal props           | Small props that are usually carried in an actor's costume, such as money or a pen. See also Hand props , Props .  |
| Pitch                    | The particular level of a voice, instrument, or tune.  |
| Plot                     | The events of a play or arrangement of action, as opposed to the theme. See also Story line .   |
| Plot development         | The organization or building of the action in a play.  |
| Posture                  | Physical alignment of a performer's body, or a physical stance taken by a performer, which conveys information about the character being played.   |
| Profile lantern          | A focusable spotlight having an ellipsoidal lens that enables a sharp-edged beam of light to be projected.   |
| Prompt                   | To give actors their lines as a reminder; the prompter is the one who assists actors in remembering their lines.  |
| Props                    | Short for properties ; any article, except costume or scenery, used as part of a dramatic production; any moveable object that appears on stage during a performance. See also Hand props , Personal props .  |
| Proscenium               | A frame or arch separating the stage from the auditorium. The prosceniumopening was of particular importance to the Realistic playwrights of the 19thcentury, such as Ibsen and Shaw, for whom it was a picture frame or animaginary fourth wall through which the audience experienced the illusion ofspying on characters.   |
| Protagonist              | The main character or hero in a play or other literary work.   |
| Proxemics                | Contemporary term for "spatial relationships", referring to spatial signifiers of the relationship between different performers or a performer and elements of the set that convey information about character and circumstances. See also Spatial relationships .  |
| Realism                  | An attempt in theater to represent everyday life and people as they are orappear to be through careful attention to detail in character motivation, costume,setting, and dialogue. Plays from this period (from 1820 to 1920) seek the truth,find beauty in the commonplace, and focus on the conditions of the workingclass. Henrik Ibsen is an exemplar of the movement; he influenced others suchas George Bernard Shaw and Anton Chekov. |
| Resolution               | How the problem or conflict in a drama is solved or concluded.   |

| Ritual         | A prescribed form or ceremony; drama grew out of religious ritual.   |
| Role           | The character portrayed by an actor in a drama.  |
| Role playing   | Improvising movement and dialogue to put oneself in another's place in a particular situation, often to examine the person(s) and/or situation(s) being improvised.  |
| Satire         | A play in which sarcasm, irony, and ridicule are used to expose or attack folly or pretension in society.  |
| Scene          | A small section or portion of a play.  |
| Scenery        | The theatrical equipment, such as curtains, flats, backdrops, or platforms, used in a dramatic production to communicate environment.  |
| Scenography    | The art of creating performance environments using one or more components including light, costume, set, space, and sound.   |
| Scrim          | A drop made of fabric that seems almost opaque when lit from the front but semitransparent when lit from behind.   |
| Set            | The physical surroundings, visible to the audience, in which the action of the play takes place.   |
| Set designer   | The person who designs the physical surroundings in which the action of the play takes place.  |
| Setting        | When and where the action of a play takes place.   |
| Sightlines     | Imaginary lines of sight that determine what areas of the stage are visible to the audience from any given seat in the house.  |
| Soliloquy      | A speech in which an actor, usually alone on stage, speaks the inner thoughts of his/her character aloud.  |
| Sound          | The effects an audience hears during a performance to communicate character, context, or environment.  |
| Sound design   | The three categories of sound design are:  |
|                | <ul> <li>Functional—e.g., practical sounds such as a gunshot to coincide with an action on stage</li> </ul>  |
|                | <ul> <li>Atmospheric— i.e., the possibility of using underscoring that may includemusic but that may also be in the form of a soundscape</li> </ul>   |
|                | <ul> <li>Incidental—where sound can be used to cover moments of transition (e.g.,between scenes or to cover the placing of stage props).</li> </ul>   |
| Sound effects  | Recorded—often abbreviated to FX . There are many sources for recorded sound effects, from compact discs to downloading from the internet. May form an obvious part of the action (train arriving at station) or may be in the background throughout a scene (e.g., birds chirping).Live —gunshots, door slams, and offstage voices (among many others) are most effective when done live. |
| Sound elements | Music, sound effects, actors' voices.  |
| Space          | A defined area.  |

|  | abacan.  |  |
| Spatial relationships                        | and Theatrical Terms (or spatial awareness). Traditional term for what is currently referred to as proxemics, referring to spatial signifiers of the relationship between different performers or a performer and elements of the set that convey information about character and circumstances. Visual or sound effects used to enhance a theatrical performance. |  |
| Special effects                              | Visual or sound effects used to enhance a theatrical performance.  |  |
| Stage presence                               | The level of comfort, commitment, and energy an actor appears to have on stage.  |  |
| Staging                                      | Another term for blocking ; deliberate choices about where the actors stand and how they move on stage to communicate character relationships and plot and to create interesting stage pictures.  |  |
| Stock characters                             | Characters who represent particular personality types or characteristics of human behavior. Stock characters are immediately recognizable and appear throughout the history of theater, beginning with Greek and Roman comedy and elaborated upon in Commedia dell'Arte .   |  |
| Story line                                   | The plot or plan of action.   |  |
| Striplights                                  | Compartmentalized floodlights set up so as to allow color mixing. See also Groundrow . Low voltage striplights are commonly used as light curtains and for color washes. Known in the UK as a batten .   |  |
| Structure                                    | The arrangement of and relationship between the constituent parts of a whole as in "prologue, exposition , dénouement " or scenes and acts within a play.  |  |
| Stylization                                  | The shaping of dramatic material, settings, or costumes in a deliberately non-realistic manner.  |  |
| Suspense                                     | A feeling of uncertainty as to the outcome, used to build interest and excitement on the part of the audience.   |  |
| Symbolism                                    | The use of symbolic language, imagery, or color to evoke emotions or ideas.  |  |
| Tableau                                      | A technique in creative drama in which actors create a frozen picture, as if the action were paused; plural is tableaux . Not to be confused with freeze frame , which is a term used in film and video production and which should not be used when discussing drama.   |  |
| Tempo  | Relative speed or rate of movement in pace over time, e.g., the speed at which the music for a dance should be played. Can be applied to dramatic contexts such as in "tempo rhythm."  |  |
| Tension                                      | The atmosphere created by unresolved, disquieting, or inharmonious situations that human beings feel compelled to address; the state of anxiety the audience feels because of a threat to a character in a play.   |  |
| Text   | The basis of dramatic activity and performance; a written script or an agreed-upon structure and content for an improvisation.   |  |
| Theater games                                | Improvisational exercises structured by the director or teacher to achieve a specific objective, such as breaking down inhibitions or establishing trust.  |  |
| Theater-in-the-round                         | An acting area or stage that may be viewed from all sides simultaneously. See also End on , Thrust , Traverse .   |  |
| Theme  | The basic idea of a play; the idea, point of view, or perception that binds together a work of art.  |  |

|                  | Appendix B: GlossaryA stage that extends into the audience area, with seats on three sides ofa peninsula-shaped acting space. See also End on , Theater-in-the-round ,Traverse .The distinctive character or quality of a musical or vocal sound apart from itspitch or intensity, such as a pacel voice quality. |
|------------------|--|
| Thrust           | A stage that extends into the audience area, with seats on three sides of a peninsula-shaped acting space. See also End on , Theater-in-the-round , Traverse .  |
| Timbre           | The distinctive character or quality of a musical or vocal sound apart from its pitch or intensity, such as a nasal voice quality.   |
| Timing           | Includes setting cues for effects and lighting, synchronizing two or more things that must happen simultaneously, and establishing the pace at which lines will be delivered or the play performed.  |
| Traverse         | Form of staging where the audience is on either side of the acting area. See also End on , Theater-in-the-round , Thrust .  |
| Turning point    | The climax or high point of a story, when events can go either way.  |
| Upstage (verb)   | To deliberately draw the audience's attention away from another actor or actorsby overacting, using flashy bits of business, or other means. The term originatedfrom an actor purposefully positioning himself upstage of the other actors so thatthey had to turn their backs on the audience to deliver their lines to him.                  |
| Vocal expression | How an actor uses his/her voice to convey character.   |
| Vocal projection | Directing the voice out of the body to be heard clearly at a distance.   |
| Voice            | The combination of vocal qualities an actor uses such as articulation, phrasing, and pronunciation.  |
| Wings            | Offstage areas to the right and left of the acting/onstage area.   |
