

MARK SCHEME for the May/June 2012 question paper for the guidance of teachers

0515 DUTCH (FOREIGN LANGUAGE)

0515/04

Paper 4 (Continuous Writing), maximum raw mark 50

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes must be read in conjunction with the question papers and the report on the examination.

- Cambridge will not enter into discussions or correspondence in connection with these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2012 question papers for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level syllabuses and some Ordinary Level syllabuses.

	IGCSE – May/June 2012	0515

25 marks per question. Each question is marked over a maximum of 140 words.

1 Communication: 5 marks

Put a stroke in the left-hand margin for each of the 5 relevant points.
Record 0 for a failure to score a point.

2 Language: 15 marks

Examiners are required to award ticks beside each Marking Unit which is substantially correct. Errors are not to be indicated. The total number of ticks should be recorded at the foot of the page and converted to a mark out of 15 using the Conversion table at the end of the mark scheme.

3 General Impression: 5 marks

The pro rata mark based on the Language mark should serve as the first guide. This mark should be adjusted up or down by one mark where this is justified by positive or negative qualities, such as unusually good or ambitious use of language, or by negative qualities, such as excessive repetition.

- 0–1 Does not rise above the requirements for the Directed Writing Task in Paper 2.
- 2 Fairly good use of idiom, vocabulary, structures and appropriate tenses.
- 3 Good use of the above.
- 4 Very good use of the above.
- 5 Excellent use of the above.

Recording of marks

Marks should be recorded at the end of the answer as follows:

$$\begin{array}{rccccccc} \text{Communication} & + & \text{Language} & + & \text{General Impression} & = & \text{Total} \\ \text{Eg } 4/5 & & + 10/15 & & + 3/5 & & = 17/25 \end{array}$$

Enter each of the two marks on the front of the Script and record the total out of 50.

Please ensure that these marks are checked carefully, especially the conversion of ticks to marks for Language.

Counting words

- (a) In letters ignore any address or date. Ignore also any title which the candidate has invented. No marks may be gained for the above.
- (b) Count up to exactly 140 words. Award no more marks thereafter, either for Communication or Language. But see note (e).
- (c) Our definition of a word is a group of letters surrounded by a space. A group of letters containing a hyphen or an apostrophe is regarded as one word.
- (d) All numbers count as one word each whether written as figures or as words.

	IGCSE – May/June 2012	0515

- (e) When the 140th word splits a Marking Unit, award a mark for the unit if correct in spelling.
met || mijn vriend. Record a tick for 'met'.
te || laat. Record a tick after 'laat'.
Hij is || klaar. Record a tick after 'Hij is'.
- (f) Indicate the 140th word by ||
- (g) Proper nouns count as one word and do not score ticks for language, eg Nieuw-Zeeland, Verenigde Staten, Noord-Holland, Minister Brinkman, New York.
- (h) In letters count a maximum of 2 words only for the addressee as in Beste meneer Aardse.

Repetition of material printed in the rubric

Such sections of the rubric which might score no marks for language are discussed at the Examiners' Coordination Meeting.

Irrelevant material

In the case of a deliberately evasive answer which consists entirely of irrelevant material exploited in defiance of the rubric, a score of 0/25 is given. These are rare in IGCSE. The genuine attempt to answer the question which fails due to a misunderstanding of the rubric will normally lose Communication marks but will score for Accuracy and Impression. Examiners who encounter what they judge to be irrelevant material/an irrelevant answer must contact the Principal Examiner during the marking period. When part of an answer is clearly irrelevant, include such material in the word count, but bracket it and award no Accuracy marks.

MARKS FOR RELEVANT COMMUNICATION

General principles

- (a) Do not award Communication Marks when the required elements are expressed in inappropriate time frames:
 - e.g. Vorig jaar ga ik naar Nederland =0 for Communication. ga ik does not receive a tick for Language. (The other elements are marked in the usual way.)

However reward a Present where a Future context is apparent:

- e.g. Volgend jaar ga ik naar Frankrijk = 1 for Communication. ga ik receives a tick for Language.

- (b) Disallow for Communication the use of the Infinitive or the Past Participle when a finite verb is required and vice versa
 - e.g. Ik gegaan naar Frankrijk =0 for Communication and Language
Ik gaan naar Frankrijk =0 similarly Ik wil naar Frankrijk ga =0 similarly

- (c) Bracket and exclude from the word count any letter etiquette in Question 2 when a letter is not asked for.

- (d) A Communication mark may only score if it occurs in the first 140 words.

	IGCSE – May/June 2012	0515

A maximum of 5 marks is available for each of the two questions. Marks are to be awarded according to the following points:

Vraag 1

- (a) vertel iets over je oom en waar hij woont; [1] wat voor werk je er gedaan hebt en hoelang je er geweest bent; [1] wat je verder gedaan hebt; [1] wat je van de hele ervaring vond; [1] wat je volgend jaar wilt gaan doen. [1]

- (b) wie het georganiseerd heeft en waar het was; [1]
wat voor programma het was en of er iemand van je klas meedeed; [1] wat jij en je klas ervan vonden; [1] wat er op de terugweg gebeurde; [1]
wat je na deze ervaring in de toekomst wilt doen. [1]

NB: Candidates should bear in mind that they cannot be credited any relevant communication marks for sections which are copied from the rubric.

Vraag 2

1 mark up to a maximum of 10 for each point relevant to the development of the storyline/plot, excluding transcription of (part of the) rubric. Divide the total number of points by two to arrive at the final mark for communication.

LANGUAGE MARKS

General comments

This positive mark scheme is intended to reward both accuracy and ambition. No marks are deducted for errors. There is no 'impression marking'.

Punctuation: incorrect punctuation will be tolerated.

Repetition: rule of three, i.e. that only the first three examples of identical lexis and structure in identical circumstances will be rewarded.

Accuracy: in letters, ignore any address or date. Ignore also any title which the candidate has invented. No marks may be gained for these items.

Irrelevant material: no marks may be obtained for clearly irrelevant material. Count such material in the word count, but bracket it.

Word Limit: count up to exactly 140 words for Language and Communication.

	IGCSE – May/June 2012	0515

Marking units: a tick is awarded for a correct marking unit of which each element is correct. The tick is recorded over the scoring word.

A Marking unit may consist of the correct use of any of the following items:

- A noun or pronoun + verb. Extra marks are available for certain constructions.
- A verb used as an infinitive, with or without a preposition
- A noun or pronoun + adjective or adjectival phrase or partitive
- A noun or pronoun + preposition or prepositional phrase
- Any pronoun other than subject pronouns
- All adverbs (except heel and erg)
- All conjunctions (except en and maar)

Letter Etiquette: Allow the use of je or u in informal letters. In the case of inconsistencies, only reward the most frequently used.

Disallow the use of je, jouw etc. in formal letters. Do not tolerate inconsistency of u and je. Also disallow glaringly inappropriate register.

Reward with a tick for Language, the use of meneer or mevrouw at the start of a formal letter. Also award one tick for Geachte meneer X or Geachte mevrouw Y in a formal letter and Beste Tinus etc. in an informal letter. Multiple addressees (Geachte meneer en mevrouw X) gain one tick only. Greetings such as Hallo or He gain ticks in informal letters only and formal endings (Hoogachtend etc.) do not score in informal letters.

In addition award ticks for Language up to a maximum of 5 for prelearnt preamble such as:

Hartelijk dank voor uw brief van jongstleden.

Thereafter ignore everything not related to the task set.

NB These politesses may occur at the end of the letter. If they do, reward to a maximum of 5.

Do not reward 'letter etiquette' for Language when a letter is not required.

Letter Ending: Allow a maximum of 3 marks for all formal and informal politesses such as: Hoogachtend, Met vriendelijke groeten etc.

Mark for language in the normal way up to a maximum of 3 ticks. This is in addition to the marks awarded for the politesses described above.

2 Compound tenses

An auxiliary and a past participle in the correct position gains one tick (i.e. one tick per correct verbal unit).

[NB: In question 2 of Paper 4, the narrative must be in the past; consequently, a candidate who uses the present tense is not fulfilling the task set, and a mark for Accuracy would be unfair to those candidates who do attempt the past tense but make mistakes. Either past tense is acceptable, so long as it reads like authentic and idiomatic Dutch.]

Ik heb (een boek) gekocht [1]

Ik heb (met de bus) gegaan [0]

Ik heb gegaan (met de bus) [0]

When candidates use the simple past in combination with a present participle, a past participle, or an infinitive, add an extra tick.

Hij was naar huis gegaan [2]

Zij had haar sleutel gevonden [2]

Wij gingen onder een boom zitten wachten (gingen zitten wachten) [3]
