SECTION A: CORE CONTENT

Answer any two questions from this Section.

- 1 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

The proclaiming of a republic in Paris in February 1848 brought an extraordinary variety and strength of emotion both in France and throughout Europe. This emotion ranged from enthusiasm and hope to the deepest alarm and anxiety. Country, family, honour, ambition, property and personal security were all threatened at once.

An historian writing in 2011.

- (a) Describe the course of the revolution in France during 1848. [5]
- (b) Why were there mixed reactions in France to the February 1848 revolution? [7]
- (c) How similar were the revolutions in Europe in 1848–9? Explain your answer. [8]

- 2 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

Bismarck was aware that if a war with Austria became necessary, then the attitude of the French would be important in deciding the outcome. In October 1865 Bismarck made an informal visit to Biarritz and met with the French leader Napoleon III. Here Bismarck was able to convince Napoleon not to intervene on behalf of Austria.

From a British school history textbook published in 1992.

- (a) What were the terms of the Treaty of Olmütz (1850)? [5]
- (b) Why did the Austro-Prussian War break out in 1866? [7]
- (c) How important was the role of France in the unification of Germany? Explain your answer. [8]

- 3 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

In the Civil War the South fought to be independent, the North to preserve the Union. It was not a war to end slavery, although it would be foolish to think slavery was not on the minds of people in 1861.

From a school history book published in 1985.

- (a) What was the decision of the Supreme Court regarding Dred Scott? [5]
- (b) Why were events at Harpers Ferry in 1859 significant? [7]
- (c) 'Civil War was a disaster for the United States.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

- 4 Look at the photograph, and then answer the questions which follow.

A photograph of an armaments factory at Essen, Germany. It was taken in the early years of the twentieth century.

- (a) Describe the arms race in the early part of the twentieth century. [5]
- (b) Why did events in Bosnia-Herzegovina in 1908 increase tension between the Great Powers? [7]
- (c) 'It was the Alliance System that caused the First World War.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

- 5 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

The French want to suck Germany and everybody else dry and to establish French military and political control of the League of Nations. The French see the League of Nations as an organisation for the restoration of France to a supreme position in Europe.

The view of a British official at the peace negotiations in 1919.

- (a) What were the weaknesses of Britain and France as leaders of the League of Nations? [5]
- (b) Why did some countries view the setting up of the League of Nations with suspicion? [7]
- (c) How far was the League of Nations a failure in its peacekeeping role in the 1920s? Explain your answer. [8]

- 6 Look at the photograph, and then answer the questions which follow.

A photograph of German troops marching into the Rhineland in 1936.

- (a) Describe how Germany re-established control over the Saar and the Rhineland. [5]
- (b) Why did Hitler want to unite Germany and Austria? [7]
- (c) 'Hitler's aggression was the main reason war broke out in 1939.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

7 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

From Stettin in the Baltic to Trieste in the Adriatic, an iron curtain has descended across the continent. Behind that line lie all the capitals of the ancient states of central and eastern Europe – Warsaw, Prague, Vienna, Budapest, Bucharest and Sofia. All these famous cities and the populations around them lie in the Soviet sphere and all are subject to a very high and increasing measure of control from Moscow.

From Churchill's speech at Fulton in the USA, March 1946.

- (a) Describe how Poland came under Communist control. [5]
- (b) Why, by 1946, were the wartime Allies less united? [7]
- (c) 'The Marshall Plan was more important than the Berlin Blockade in increasing Cold War tensions.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

8 Look at the photograph, and then answer the questions which follow.

A photograph of the UNO General Assembly in session.

- (a) Describe the work of (i) the Secretariat of the UNO and (ii) the International Court of Justice. [5]
- (b) Why has the organisation of the UNO hindered its effectiveness? [7]
- (c) 'The intervention of the UNO in Korea was more successful than its intervention in the Congo.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

SECTION B: DEPTH STUDIES

Answer any one question from this Section.

DEPTH STUDY A: GERMANY, 1918–45

- (b) Explain why the Tsar survived the 1905 Revolution. [7]
- (c) 'The severe winter of 1916–17 brought about the downfall of Tsar Nicholas II.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

- 12 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

The Provisional Government has no real power of any kind and its orders are carried out only to the extent that the Soviet of workers' and soldiers' deputies permits it. The Soviet controls the essential levers of power, insofar as the troops, the railways, and the postal and telegraph services are in its hands. One can bluntly assert that the Provisional Government exists only as long as it is permitted to do so by the Soviet.

From a letter written by a member of the Provisional Government, March 1917.

- (a) What was the Petrograd Soviet? [5]
- (b) Why was the Kornilov Affair significant? [7]
- (c) After seizing power, how well did the Bolsheviks deal with Russia's major problems – 'Peace, Bread and Land'? Explain your answer. [8]
