CAMBRIDGE INTERNATIONAL EXAMINATIONS

IGCSE PORTUGUESE

MINIMUM CORE VOCABULARY

This Minimum Core Vocabulary List for the Core Curriculum is primarily intended as a guide for teachers to assist in the planning of work in relation to the Programme of Study.

The assessment tasks for the Core Curriculum will be based on the Minimum Core Vocabulary but candidates should expect to encounter unfamiliar vocabulary.

The Minimum Core Vocabulary does not attempt to contain all numerals and ordinals, words in common use in English, English words in common use in Portuguese, cognates, common place names, derivatives or compound nouns, if they can be formed by joining words listed in their literal meanings. Candidates should, however, be expected to be familiar with these.

GENERAL NOTIONS

Candidates will be expected to use and understand the general vocabulary listed below. This vocabulary is not restricted to specific topics and can occur in any of the topic areas listed in the syllabus.

Notes

The vocabulary lists are not intended to be restrictive or to limit the work of teachers or the candidates.

It is assumed that candidates will be able to recognise and use Portuguese words that are identical or similar in both form and meaning to English equivalents, e.g. animal, hotel, anual, gás, táxi.

Where applicable, the meaning of individual words may be given on the examination paper in English and, where a word is restricted to a particular Portuguese-speaking country, the equivalent term used in other Portuguese-speaking countries or regions will be given, e.g. autocarro – machimbombo - ônibus; sumo – suco.

Candidates will also be expected to recognise the following:

- English words used in Portuguese with no change of meaning, e.g. e-mail, stop, baked potato, password.
- Letters of the alphabet, including k, w and y, punctuation and other marks and symbols used in the Portuguese language, e.g. 2^a- feira,
- Commonly used abbreviations, e.g. D.(dona), Exmo, Km, Sr., Sra.,
- Past participles used as nouns or adjectives, e.g. aberto, cheio, convidado, proibido.
- Derivatives, e.g. if feliz appears on the list, it is assumed that candidates will be able to recognise and use felicidade and felicitações.

All candidates should be able to understand and use the prefixes: des-, ex-, im-, in-, pre-, pro-, re-, sub-, super- and the suffixes, -ante, -ão, -dade, -dor, -eiro, -inho, -ista, -ito, -mente, -mento, -oso, -ria, and where applicable their feminine forms.

Also candidates should be able to:

- recognise and use verbs reflexively where appropriate.
- recognise and use well-known geographical names (oceans, seas, rivers, mountains, continents, cities), nationalities and countries including all the EU countries and Portuguese-speaking countries and regions.
- recognise and use ordinal, cardinal and proportional numbers, as indicated in the Grammar.
- recognise and use parts of the day, days of the week, months, and seasons of the year.
- recognise and use the main cardinal points of the compass.

The list of structures and grammar is provided in order to give a clear indication of the grammatical knowledge expected of candidates in the examination. It is not intended to be restrictive and able pupils should be encouraged to progress beyond the list at the highest level, although this knowledge would not be tested.

All structures and grammar listed for the Core Curriculum are expected of Extended Curriculum candidates also.

Items listed are for active use, unless otherwise stated.

Symbols used for items graded in increasing order of difficulty are as follows:

- (R) receptive use for Sections 1 and 2 but both receptive and active use for Section 3
- * both receptive and active use for Level 3 only
- *(R) receptive use for Level 3 only

SUBJECT CONTENT

AREAS OF EXPERIENCE AND TOPICS

The appendix sets out further details of the syllabus content as expressed in tasks related to Topics and Areas of Experience.

The Topic headings are not always clearly defined and delimited, and there are therefore areas of overlap and duplication. For example, a Topic such as 'Home Life' occurs under Areas of Experience A and overlaps with 'House and Home' in Area of Experience B. In the same way, B6 'Holidays' is closely linked to E1 'Tourism at Home and Abroad'. It is important to maintain all headings, even where there is some repetition, otherwise a key element might be omitted. Cross references are given in such cases.

The examination papers will sample Topics and tasks from the range set out in the following list. It will not necessarily be appropriate to examine Topics individually.

Tasks listed for Section 1 of the Core Curriculum (targeted grades G, F, E) assume situations where requirements and responses are reasonably predictable.

Under each topic, tasks have been listed in three columns, following the pattern of three sections in the examination. The left hand column shows tasks appropriate to Section 1 of the examination (targeted grades G, F, E). The centre column contains tasks targeted at Section 2, i.e. grades D, C. The right hand column contains tasks targeted to Section 3 of the examination (targeted grades B, A, A*).

Candidates entered for Section 3 are expected to have covered tasks defined for all sections of the examination. In addition, candidates aiming at the higher grades (B, A, A*) will be expected to handle a wider range of vocabulary and structures and to demonstrate some or all of the following:

- cope with a greater degree of unpredictability
- understand and give fuller accounts which make use of more complex range of language (for example structures, tense, range of vocabulary)
- give and understand opinions and draw conclusions where necessary
- see the relationship between ideas.
