1. Introduction

1.1 Why Choose Cambridge?

University of Cambridge International Examinations is the world's largest provider of international education programs and qualifications for 5 to 19 year olds. We are part of the University of Cambridge, trusted for excellence in education. Our qualifications are recognized by the world's universities and employers.

Recognition

Every year, hundreds of thousands of learners gain the Cambridge qualifications they need to enter the world's universities.

Cambridge IGCSE® (International General Certificate of Secondary Education) is internationally recognized by schools, universities, and employers as equivalent to UK GCSE. Learn more at www.cie.org.uk/recognition

Excellence in Education

We understand education. We work with over 9,000 schools in over 160 countries that offer our programs and qualifications. Understanding learners' needs around the world means listening carefully to our community of schools, and we are pleased that 98% of Cambridge schools say they would recommend us to other schools.

Our mission is to provide excellence in education, and our vision is that Cambridge learners become confident, responsible, innovative, and engaged.

Cambridge programs and qualifications help Cambridge learners to become:

- confident in working with information and ideas—their own and those of others
- responsible for themselves, responsive to and respectful of others
- innovative and equipped for new and future challenges
- engaged intellectually and socially, ready to make a difference.

Support in the Classroom

We provide a world-class support service for Cambridge teachers and exams officers. We offer a wide range of teacher materials to Cambridge schools, plus teacher training (online and face-to-face), expert advice, and learner support materials. Exams officers can trust in reliable, efficient administration of exams entry and excellent, personal support from our customer services. Learn more at www.cie.org.uk/teachers

Nonprofit, Part of the University of Cambridge

We are a part of Cambridge Assessment, a department of the University of Cambridge and a nonprofit organization.

We invest constantly in research and development to improve our programs and qualifications.

1.2 Why Choose Cambridge IGCSE?

Cambridge IGCSE helps your school improve learners' performance. Learners develop not only knowledge and understanding, but also skills in creative thinking, inquiry, and problem solving, helping them perform well and prepare for the next stage of their education.

Cambridge IGCSE is the world's most popular international curriculum for 14 to 16 year olds, leading to globally recognized and valued Cambridge IGCSE qualifications. It is part of the Cambridge Secondary 2 stage.

Schools worldwide have helped develop Cambridge IGCSE, which provides an excellent preparation for Cambridge International AS and A Levels, Cambridge Pre-U, Cambridge AICE (Advanced International Certificate of Education), and other education programs, such as the US Advanced Placement Program and the International Baccalaureate Diploma. Cambridge IGCSE incorporates the best in international education for learners at this level. It develops in line with changing needs, and we update and extend it regularly.

1.3 Why Choose Cambridge IGCSE Foreign Languages?

Cambridge foreign language IGCSEs are accepted by universities and employers as proof of linguistic ability and understanding. The Cambridge IGCSE foreign language syllabus encourages students to develop lifelong skills, including:

- the ability to use a foreign language as a means of practical communication
- insight into the culture and civilization of countries where the language is spoken
- a positive attitude toward language learning, toward the speakers of other languages, and toward other cultures and civilizations
- techniques which can be applied to other areas of learning, such as analysis and memory skills
- a sound foundation for progression to employment or further study.

This is one of a number of Cambridge IGCSE foreign language syllabi—for a full list, visit the Cambridge website at www.cie.org.uk

1.4 Cambridge International Certificate of Education (ICE)

Cambridge ICE is the group award of Cambridge IGCSE. It gives schools the opportunity to benefit from offering a broad and balanced curriculum by recognizing the achievements of learners who pass examinations in at least seven subjects. Learners take subjects from five subject groups, including two languages, and one subject from each of the other subject groups. The seventh subject can be taken from any of the five subject groups.

French (0528), German (0529), and Spanish (0533) fall into Group I, Languages.

Learn more about Cambridge IGCSE and Cambridge ICE at www.cie.org.uk/cambridgesecondary2

1.5 How Can I Find Out More?

If You Are Already a Cambridge School

You can make entries for this qualification through your usual channels. If you have any questions, please contact us at international@cie.org.uk

If You Are Not Yet a Cambridge School

Learn about the benefits of becoming a Cambridge school at www.cie.org.uk/startcambridge.

Email us at international@cie.org.uk to find out how your organization can become a Cambridge school.

2. Assessment at a Glance

2.1 Scheme of Assessment

All candidates have access to all elements of the examination. However, for the examination to be appropriate to candidates across the full ability range, separate options are available for Core Curriculum candidates and Extended Curriculum candidates:

Core Curriculum Grades available: C, D, E, F, G	Extended Curriculum (Core + Supplement) Grades available: A*, A, B, C, D, E, F, G
Paper 1 Listening 45 minutes: Sections 1, 2, and 3	Paper 1 Listening 45 minutes: Sections 1, 2, and 3
Paper 2 Reading and Directed Writing 1½ hours: Sections 1, 2, and 3	Paper 2 Reading and Directed Writing 1½ hours: Sections 1, 2, and 3
Paper 3* Speaking 15 minutes	Paper 3* Speaking 15 minutes
	Paper 4 Continuous Writing 1¼ hours

* Individual Centers are responsible for conducting the tests and for the initial assessment, which is then subject to moderation by Cambridge.

Papers 1, 2, and 3 are common to both routes, but candidates cannot achieve higher than a grade C without taking Paper 4.

All Extended Curriculum candidates will be graded twice: once on their performance on the Core Curriculum Papers (1, 2, and 3) and once on their performance on the Extended Curriculum Papers (1, 2, 3, and 4). Candidates are awarded the higher of the two grades they achieve.

2.2 Weighting of Papers

Paper	Weighting: Core	Weighting: Extended
1	33%	25%
2	33%	25%
3	33%	25%
4	n/a	25%

This syllabus should be read in conjunction with the relevant language-specific Defined Content Booklet, available from the Cambridge website at www.cie.org.uk

2.3 Availability

- Syllabus 0528 French is examined in the May/June examination series and the October/November examination series.
- Syllabus 0529 German is examined in the May/June examination series.
- Syllabus 0533 Spanish is examined in the May/June examination series and the October/November examination series.

2.4 Combining This with Other Syllabi

Candidates can combine these syllabi in an examination series with any other Cambridge syllabus, except:

- syllabi with the same title at the same level
- syllabus 0528 French must not be offered in the same series with 0501 First Language French
- syllabus 0529 German must not be offered in the same series with 0505 First Language German
- syllabus 0533 Spanish must not be offered in the same series with 0537 First Language Spanish

3. Syllabus Goals and Objectives

3.1 Syllabus Goals

The goals of the syllabus are the same for all candidates and describe the educational purposes of a foreign language course for the Cambridge IGCSE examination. They are not listed in order of priority.

The goals are to:

1. develop the ability to use the language effectively for purposes of practical communication within the country of residence, where appropriate, and in all countries where the language is spoken
2. form a sound base of the skills, language, and attitudes required for further study, work, and leisure
3. offer insights into the culture and civilization of countries where the language is spoken
4. encourage fuller integration into the local community, where relevant
5. develop a fuller awareness of the nature of language and language learning
6. encourage positive attitudes toward language learning and toward speakers of other languages and a sympathetic approach to other cultures and civilizations
7. provide enjoyment and intellectual stimulation
8. complement other areas of study by encouraging skills of a more general application (e.g., analysis, memorizing, drawing of inferences).

3.2 Assessment Objectives

Candidates will be assessed on their ability to:

- A01 understand and respond to spoken language
- A02 understand and respond to written language
- A03 communicate in speech, showing knowledge of a range and variety of vocabulary, and applying the grammar and structures of the target language accurately
- A04 communicate in writing, showing knowledge of a range and variety of vocabulary, and applying the grammar and structures of the target language accurately.

3.3 Weighting of Assessment Objectives

The relationship between the Assessment Objectives and the Scheme of Assessment is set out in the tables below.

Core Curriculum

	Paper 1 Listening (marks)	Paper 2 Reading & directed writing (marks)	Paper 3 Speaking (marks)	Paper 4 Continuous writing (marks)	Whole assessment (%)
A01	48				33
A02		45			23
A03			100		33
A04		20			11

Extended Curriculum

	Paper 1 Listening (marks)	Paper 2 Reading & directed writing (marks)	Paper 3 Speaking (marks)	Paper 4 Continuous writing (marks)	Whole assessment (%)
A01	48				25
A02		45			17
A03			100		25
A04		20		50	33

4. Description of Papers

All examination papers are presented entirely in the target language: this includes rubrics (directions) and all questions. All questions requiring written answers, including questions testing Listening and Reading Comprehension, are to be answered in the target language. Dictionaries are not permitted in the examination.

For detailed guidance on how the papers are marked, please refer to the published mark schemes available on the Cambridge Teacher Support website.

4.1 Paper 1: Listening

Approximately 45 minutes, 48 marks

The Listening Examination will be provided to Centers on a pre-recorded CD. All listening material will be heard twice by candidates, and appropriate pauses for candidates to write their answers will be included on the recording.

All candidates must attempt all three sections.

Although candidates will encounter a variety of question types on the Listening Paper, wherever possible objective questions are used, requiring little writing in the target language, e.g., multiple choice, box-checking, matching exercises, and grid filling.

Where candidates are required to produce written answers in the target language, it is important that they write briefly, relevantly, and concisely. Long answers often contain irrelevant information and candidates writing long answers may find it hard to keep up with the recording.

The goal of this paper is to test candidates' listening comprehension skills, and therefore candidates are not penalized for incorrect or inaccurate language unless it makes their answers ambiguous.

Answers written in any language other than that being tested are ignored.

Section 1 (16 marks)

Candidates hear short recordings, sometimes involving two speakers, and comprehension is tested through the use of visuals (pictures, blue prints, etc.). The recordings contain largely factual information about travel, weather, opening times, facilities available, etc., and candidates identify main ideas and extract some details.

Section 2 (16 marks)

Candidates hear recordings of conversations, discussions, or simple radio programs containing factual material and points of view. They listen for main ideas and extract details and points of view.

Section 3 (16 marks)

Candidates hear recordings of discussions between two or three people. They listen for main details and themes. There will be questions to test comprehension of the speakers' use of language to express agreement or disagreement, apologies or complaints, attitudes, emotions, and ideas, etc., as well as understanding the main ideas of their conversation.

Administration of the Listening Test

Cambridge will supply Centers with one audio CD for every 20 candidates, and one spare. These can be kept by the Center after the examination. Centers are strongly advised to hold the test in rooms that are suitable for up to 30 candidates at a time. If Centers have powerful audio equipment, more candidates may be accommodated without special permission, but no special appeals will be considered. In exceptional circumstances, Centers may transfer material from CD to audiocassette, but this should be done under strict security conditions with adequate supervision.

CDs must be spot-checked as soon as they are received. Shortly before the examination day (e.g., the teaching day before), CDs must be spot-checked again, in the room to be used for the examination, to test the acoustics.

During the examination, the invigilator should instruct candidates to open their Question Paper as s/he starts the CD. Once the CD is started, it must run without interruption. The CD must not be "rewound" to go back for a question that may have been missed because of noise from outside (e.g., an airplane), and candidates should be warned of this before the test is started. The CD may be stopped/paused only if there is a serious emergency (e.g., a candidate fainting) and must then be restarted from exactly the same place, once the emergency has been dealt with. In such cases, an application for Special Consideration must be made and sent directly to Cambridge (see the Cambridge Handbook). Centers must state the point on the CD at which any interruption took place and the reasons for and length of the interruption. If, as a result of the interruption, there is reason to believe that candidates may not have clearly heard parts of the recording, a note of the question numbers affected should also be included.

Transcripts of the CD are issued with the published mark scheme.

4.2 Paper 2: Reading and Directed Writing

1½ hours, 65 marks

All candidates must attempt all three sections.

There are a variety of question types on the Reading and Directed Writing Paper. These include objective questions, e.g., multiple-choice, box-checking, matching exercises, and grid filling. Other question types require candidates to write short answers in the target language.

The reading exercises are designed to test comprehension skills. Where candidates are required to produce written answers in the target language, they are not penalized for incorrect or inaccurate language unless it makes their answers ambiguous. It is important that they write briefly, relevantly, and concisely. Provided that answers are unambiguous, long answers in full sentences are often not required. Candidates should be encouraged to paraphrase and manipulate the language in order to answer questions appropriately. They are unlikely to gain marks if they simply copy large chunks from the stimulus material, with no attempt to select what is relevant.

The two writing tasks are designed to reward candidates more for their skill in transmitting a message than for the accuracy of their language. Material that is irrelevant does not score marks. Marks are never deducted: candidates are given every opportunity to gain marks for what they can do.

Answers written in any language other than that being tested are ignored.

Section 1 (20 marks)

- Exercise 1 (5 marks): multiple-choice questions relating to signs, notices, advertisements, etc.
- Exercises 2 and 3 (10 marks): objective questions testing specific detail relating to brochures, guides, short texts, etc.
- Exercise 4 (5 marks): a simple directed writing task in the form of a message, note, or postcard. A maximum of 40 words is required. 3 marks are available for Communication and 2 marks for Appropriateness of Language.

Section 2 (25 marks)

- Exercise 1 (10 marks): one text with questions testing general understanding, e.g., identifying the main details.
- Exercise 2 (15 marks): a directed writing task. 80–100 words in total are required. 10 marks are available for Communication and 5 marks for Quality of Language.

Section 3 (20 marks)

- Exercises 1 and 2 (20 marks): two longer texts with questions testing general and specific comprehension. Questions may also require candidates to identify attitudes, emotions, etc., the main details or themes, and to make inferences and draw conclusions.

4.3 Paper 3: Speaking

Approximately 15 minutes, 100 marks

The Speaking examination consists of a single interview with three mandatory parts:

- Test 1: Role Plays
- Test 2: Topic Presentation/Conversation
- Test 3: General Conversation.

The Role Play tasks are provided by Cambridge, but individual Centers are responsible for administering the tests and for the initial assessment. This assessment is then subject to moderation by Cambridge.

Full instructions on the conduct and assessment of the Speaking examination are provided in the Teachers' Notes Booklet and Role Play Cards. These items are dispatched to Centers on the basis of their Estimated Entries and it is therefore important that Centers submit Estimated Entries for the syllabi by the deadline published in the Cambridge Administrative Guide. Past copies of the Teachers' Notes Booklet and the Role Play Cards can be downloaded from the Teacher Support Website.

Administration of the Speaking Examination

The Speaking examination takes place before the main examination period:

- between March 1 and April 30 for the June examination
- between September 15 and October 31 for the November examination (French and Spanish only).

Each Center decides on a convenient period within these dates for its Speaking examinations.

Each Center selects its own teacher/examiner to administer and assess the Speaking examination. This is normally a teacher from within the Languages Department but could be someone local from outside the Center.

In the interests of standardization, only one teacher/examiner should be appointed per Center.

Where a Center wishes to use additional teachers/examiners because it has large numbers of candidates, permission to do so must be sought from the Languages Group at Cambridge well before the start of each Speaking examination period. Permission to use more than one teacher/examiner will be granted only on the understanding that (i) teachers/examiners at the Center work together to ensure a common approach to the administration of the Speaking examination and the use of the mark scheme and (ii) the Speaking examinations for all candidates at the Center are recorded. The sample the Center submits to Cambridge must include the work of each teacher/examiner, and a Speaking examination Working Mark Sheet must be submitted for each teacher/examiner, with candidate names and numbers clearly entered.

Confidential test materials (Teachers' Notes Booklet and Role Play Cards) are sent to Centers approximately two to three weeks before the start of the assessment period and will include full instructions on how to administer and assess the Speaking examination. These should be opened four working days before the Center's assessment starts and studied carefully by the teacher/examiner before carrying out his/her first Speaking examination. Teachers/Examiners who have prepared their own roles fully and are confident in what they are doing are better able to help candidates should they experience any difficulty. Once the materials have been opened, they remain confidential and must be kept in a secure place by the Center until the end of the examination period. Candidates must not have knowledge of the role play situations in advance of the examination.

In order to allow Cambridge to check accurately the standard of assessment, each Center must record and send to Cambridge a recorded sample as follows:

- Centers entering 1–16 candidates must send the recordings of all candidates
- Centers entering 17 or more candidates must send:
  - (i) the recordings of the first 10 candidates according to candidate number
  - and
  - (ii) the recordings of 6 candidates spread evenly across the ability range. The candidates selected should be representative of the range of marks awarded by the Center and should be spread as evenly as possible across that range. If possible, the recordings of the strongest and the weakest candidates at the Center should be included, with the other recordings spaced at equal intervals in between.

Note Centers entering 17 or more candidates must send a total of 16 recordings. The category (ii) candidates must be chosen from candidates who do not fall into category (i). In Centers with just over 17 candidates, Cambridge accepts that this may mean that the category (ii) candidates are not fully representative of the range.

Moderation samples must be recorded at normal speed onto either a C90 audiocassette or a standard format CD. Mini cassettes/mini CDs must not be used. The Center is responsible for supplying cassettes/CDs for the recording of its moderation sample: these will not be supplied by Cambridge. All recording equipment, including cassettes/CDs, must be of as high a standard as possible to ensure that moderation samples are clearly audible. Where Centers make use of digital recording software, each candidate's file must be saved individually and saved as .mp3 so that it can be accessed for the purposes of moderation.

Centers will receive a brief report on the outcome of moderation (Form CW/C/REP).

A Speaking Test Training Handbook can be ordered from Cambridge Publications and provides the opportunity for teacher/examiners to receive feedback on their conduct and assessment of the Speaking examination before they undertake their first live tests. Although accreditation by Cambridge is not mandatory for teachers administering and assessing Cambridge IGCSE foreign language Speaking examinations, Cambridge recommends that Centers new to the syllabus complete this training.

Structure of the Speaking Examination

Test 1: Role Plays (approximately 5 minutes, 30 marks)

Cambridge supplies a number of alternative Role Play Cards which the teacher/examiner allocates at random to candidates during each session of examining. Each candidate is given one card containing two role play situations, each of which consists of five tasks. Each candidate is examined in both role play situations on the card they have been given. The first role play (Role Play A) is more straightforward than the second (Role Play B). Candidates should be allowed approximately 15 minutes to prepare their two role play situations. They may not take any written notes into the preparation room nor may they make any notes during their preparation time. Candidates should have a copy of the Role Play Card they have prepared to refer to in the examination room but must not be allowed to take it away with them after the examination.

Each role play situation specifies the roles of the teacher/examiner and candidate. Teachers/Examiners must conduct the role plays in accordance with the instructions provided in the Teachers' Notes Booklet. They must prepare the situations carefully so that the candidate's tasks follow on naturally from the teacher's/examiner's response. As marks can be awarded only for the stipulated tasks, the teacher/examiner must not create extra tasks, and if a candidate omits a task, should try to guide him/her back to it, in as natural a way as possible. It does not matter that this may lead to tasks occurring in a different order, as long as they are all attempted.

For the Mark Scheme, see Appendix A, Table A, of the Marking Instructions.

Test 2: Topic Presentation/Conversation (approximately 5 minutes, 30 marks)

This part of the examination starts with a one- to two-minute presentation by the candidate on a topic of his/her choice which he/she will have prepared in advance. The teacher/examiner will follow up the presentation with specific spontaneous questions on the topic, bringing the total time for the Topic Presentation and Topic Conversation to approximately five minutes.

Candidates are encouraged to choose a topic in which they have a personal interest. Suitable subjects might be, for example, "School life," "Hobbies and pastimes" (general or specific), "My country," "Life in another country," "My ambitions," or "Vacations." Topics dealing with politics or social and economic issues are ambitious for this level of achievement and may disadvantage candidates if they do not possess the linguistic skills and maturity of ideas which such topics necessitate. Candidates should be encouraged to prepare different topics within a Center and should not be allowed to present "Myself" or "My life" as topics, as these can often pre-empt the General Conversation section. Candidates may use illustrative material, e.g., photographs, if this seems appropriate to their topic, but are not allowed to use written notes of any kind.

The teacher/examiner will allow candidates to speak for one to two minutes uninterrupted on their chosen topic before starting the Topic Conversation. Where a candidate has been talking for two minutes and shows no sign of finishing his/her presentation, the teacher/examiner must interrupt and start the Topic Conversation.

In the Topic Conversation, candidates should be able to respond to the teacher's/examiner's questions in a spontaneous and natural manner. It is the extent to which candidates can manipulate their prepared material according to the needs of the teacher/examiner that determines their marks, and they must not be allowed to deliver a prepared monologue or a series of obviously prepared replies.

The teacher/examiner must try to lead the candidate into using a variety of tenses. For a mark of 7 or above to be awarded on Scale (b), Linguistic Content, candidates must show that they can convey past and future meaning, and teachers/examiners need to ask questions that allow them to do this. In order to extend the candidate as far as possible, the teacher/examiner should probe, explore, ask for explanations, enlargements, and descriptions (how? when? why? tell me a bit more about . . ., etc.).

For the Mark Scheme, see Appendix A, Table B, of the Marking Instructions.

Test 3: General Conversation (approximately 5 minutes, 30 marks)

The Topic Conversation will lead into a spontaneous discussion of a more general nature. The teacher/examiner will announce the transition to the General Conversation and should ease the candidate into the General Conversation by starting out from any point of interest noted earlier or by asking a couple of general 'starter' questions relating to the candidate's everyday life, e.g., school, home, town, trip to and from school, free time (evenings, weekends), vacations, hobbies. All candidates can reasonably be expected to have the command of vocabulary and idiom necessary for this.

The teacher/examiner should aim to cover two or three of the Defined Content Examination Topics in this section of the examination (listed in the Curriculum Content section). With weaker candidates, it may be necessary to cover a greater number of topics superficially, but with more able candidates, it is preferable to ask a series of linked questions on two or three topics, in order to explore these in greater depth. Precise factual information or knowledge is not required and candidates must not be penalized for lack of such knowledge. Questions must be adjusted to the candidate's ability, and the teacher/examiner should be ready to move quickly to another subject if candidates are obviously out of their depth.

Candidates are expected to give natural replies to questions; their answers need not therefore be in the form of complete sentences. The teacher/examiner should avoid asking questions that can be answered with "yes" or "no" and should instead use a variety of interrogatives, e.g., when? how? why? how many? how long? with whom? with what? Questions should be adjusted to the candidate's ability. However, as in the Topic Conversation, the teacher/examiner must try to extend the candidate as far as possible by giving them the opportunity to provide opinions and justifications.

As in the Topic Conversation, the teacher/examiner must try to lead the candidate into using a variety of tenses (themes could be visits to other countries, plans for the future, etc.) so he/she can then be extended as far as possible. For a mark of 7 or above to be awarded on Scale (b), Linguistic Content, candidates must show that they can convey past and future meaning and teachers/examiners need to ask questions that allow them to do this.

For the Mark Scheme, see Appendix A, Table B, of the Marking Instructions.

Impression (10 marks)

At the end of the Speaking examination, based on the candidate's overall performance, the teacher/examiner awards a mark for pronunciation, accent, and fluency.

For the Mark Scheme, see Appendix A, Table C, of the Marking Instructions.

4.4 Paper 4: Continuous Writing—Extended Candidates Only

1¼ hours, 50 marks

Candidates produce two pieces of continuous writing in order to demonstrate their mastery of the target language. Each piece must be 130–140 words long.

- Question 1: candidates are given a choice of two fairly structured tasks and must complete one of these.
- Question 2: candidates are given a more open task (narrative, descriptive, etc.), which is mandatory for all candidates.

Candidates are expected to communicate as accurately as possible, and should, in so doing, make use of a wider variety of idiom, vocabulary, structure, and appropriate tenses than is required on Paper 2.

A system of positive marking is used. Examiners reward material worthy of credit and do not indicate errors. Irrelevant material is not rewarded.

Each of the two questions is marked out of 25 under the following three headings:

- Communication            5 marks
- Quality of Language      15 marks
- General Impression       5 marks

5. Curriculum Content

Candidates may follow the Core Curriculum or the Extended Curriculum, which includes both the Core and Supplement. A*, A, and B grades are available only to candidates taking the Extended Curriculum.

5.1 The Defined Content Booklet

A language-specific Defined Content Booklet (revised for the 2011 examination onwards) is provided to guide teachers and candidates preparing for this examination. It can be downloaded from the Cambridge website and includes the following sections:

- Topic Areas: the list of topic areas from which all textual material used in the examination will be drawn.
- Minimum Core Vocabulary: the list of vocabulary to be tested in Sections 1 and 2 of Papers 1 and 2 and Role Plays A of Paper 3.
- Grammar and Structures: the list of grammar and structures that candidates aiming at grades G to C are expected to learn, and a supplementary list for those aiming at grades B to A*.

The table below summarizes the relationship between the Defined Content and the question papers.

Paper	Section	Topic areas	Minimum core vocabulary	Structures and grammar
Paper 1	1	A B C	✓	Part 1
	2	A B C D* E*	✓	Part 1
	3	A B C D E		Parts 1 and 2

6. Grade Descriptions

Grade A

- Listening Candidates identify and understand main ideas and detail in a variety of types of authentic spoken language. They recognize points of view, attitudes, and emotions and are able to draw conclusions.
- Reading Candidates identify and understand main ideas and detail in a variety of types of authentic texts. They recognize points of view, attitudes, and emotions and are able to draw conclusions. They show an ability to understand unfamiliar language and to extract meaning from more complex language.
- Speaking Candidates initiate and develop conversations and discussions, and narrate events. They express and justify ideas and points of view, and produce longer sequences of speech using a variety of vocabulary, structures, and verb tenses. They speak confidently, with good pronunciation and intonation. The message is clear although there may still be some errors, especially when candidates use more complex structures.
- Writing Candidates give information and narrate events both factually and imaginatively. They express and justify ideas and points of view. They produce longer sequences using a range of vocabulary, structures, and verb tenses. Their spelling and grammar are generally accurate, and the style is appropriate to the purpose.

Grade C

- Listening Candidates identify and note main ideas and extract details and points of view from language spoken at normal speed. The spoken texts include past and future events. They are drawn from a variety of topics that include familiar language in unfamiliar contexts.
- Reading Candidates identify and extract details and points of view from authentic and simulated texts, drawn from a variety of topics and which include past, present, and future events. They show an ability to understand unfamiliar language.
- Speaking Candidates develop conversations and simple discussions that include past, present, and future events, involving the use of different tenses. They express personal opinions and show an ability to deal with some unpredictable elements. Although there may be some errors, they convey a clear message, and their pronunciation and intonation are generally accurate.
- Writing Candidates express personal opinions and write about a variety of topics that may be factual or imaginative and that may include different tenses or time frames. They use an appropriate register. The style is basic but despite some errors, the writing conveys a clear message.

Grade F

- Listening Candidates identify and note main ideas and extract some details from simple language spoken clearly at near normal speed.
- Reading Candidates identify main ideas and extract some information from short, simple texts. They use context to work out the meaning of words.
- Speaking Candidates take part in simple conversations showing some ability to communicate simple ideas in straightforward language. Their pronunciation is generally accurate, and although there may be some grammatical inaccuracies, the main messages are communicated.
- Writing Candidates write short sentences and communicate simple ideas. Although there may be mistakes in spelling and grammar, the main messages are communicated.

7. Appendix A: Speaking (Paper 3)

7.1 Marking Instructions for the Speaking Examination and the Working Mark Sheet

7.1.1 Marking Instructions for the Speaking Examination

General Principles

- You are urged to use the full range of marks, bearing in mind that it is not necessary for a candidate to be of native speaker standard to be given maximum marks within any single category.
- Adopt a positive approach: award marks based on what the candidate can do rather than deducting marks for errors.
- Above all else, please be consistent in your marking. The moderation process allows for adjustments to be made to consistently harsh or consistently generous marking. If you are unsure of the mark to award, err on the side of generosity.

Table A—Mark Scheme for Test 1: Role Plays (30 marks)

In this part of the Speaking examination, the teacher/examiner plays the part of a patient and well-disposed foreigner with no knowledge of the candidate's first language.

The Role Plays test the ability of candidates to communicate needs, information, requests, etc., in plausibly life-like situations. Intelligibility is therefore more important than grammatical or syntactic accuracy. However, only verbal communication is assessed: credit is not given for gestures, facial expressions, or other nonverbal forms of communication.

Candidates are required to give natural responses, not necessarily in the form of complete sentences. The use of appropriate register and correct idiom is rewarded.

Each of the ten Role Play tasks (five tasks in Role Play A and five in Role Play B) completed by the candidate is assessed on the scale below. When awarding marks, teachers/examiners should start at the bottom of the Mark Scheme and work upwards.

An accurate utterance that not only conveys the meaning but also is expressed in native idiom and appropriate register. Minor errors (adjective endings, use of prepositions, etc.) are tolerated. The utterance is intelligible and the task of communication is achieved.	3
The language used is not necessarily the most appropriate to the situation and may contain inaccuracies that do not obscure the meaning.	2
Communication of some meaning is achieved, but the native speaker would find the message ambiguous or incomplete.	1
The utterance is unintelligible to the native speaker.	0

Notes

1. If there are two elements in a task and only one is completed, then a maximum of one mark only may be awarded.
2. Short utterances, if appropriate, can be worth three marks—especially in Role Play A.

Table B—Mark Scheme for Test 2: Topic Presentation/Conversation and Test 3: General Conversation (2 × 30 marks)

As detailed in Table B, each of Tests 2 and 3 is marked on two scales:

- Scale (a): Comprehension/responsiveness

This assesses the candidate's response in terms of comprehension of the teacher/examiner, immediacy of reaction/response, fluency of response, and presentation of material in the topic.

- Scale (b): Linguistic content

This assesses the linguistic content of the candidate's answers in terms of the complexity, accuracy, and range of structures, vocabulary, and idiom.

Category		Mark
Outstanding	(a) A spontaneous interchange between candidate and examiner. Responds confidently to all question types. Fluent. Not necessarily of native speaker standard. (b) Very accurate use of structures, vocabulary, and idiom with occasional errors in more complex language. Not necessarily of native speaker standard.	14–15
Very good	(a) Generally understands questions the first time but may require occasional rephrasing. Can respond satisfactorily to both straightforward and unexpected questions. (b) Wide range of mostly accurate structures, vocabulary, and idiom.	12–13
Good	(a) Has no difficulty with straightforward questions and responds fairly well to unexpected ones, particularly when they are rephrased. (b) Good range of generally accurate structures, varied vocabulary.	10–11
Satisfactory	(a) Understands straightforward questions but has difficulty with some unexpected ones and needs rephrasing. Fairly fluent, but some hesitation. (b) Adequate range of structures and vocabulary. Can convey past and future meaning: some ambiguity.	7–9
Weak	(a) Has difficulty even with straightforward questions but still attempts an answer. (b) Shows elementary, limited vocabulary and faulty manipulation of structures.	4–6
Poor	(a) Frequently fails to understand the questions and has great difficulty in replying. (b) Shows very limited range of structures and vocabulary.	0–3

Table C—Mark Scheme for Impression (10 marks)

A mark out of 10 is awarded for Impression.

Very good pronunciation, intonation, and fluency; an occasional slight mistake or hesitation. Not necessarily of native speaker standard.	9–10
Good pronunciation and fluency; makes a fair attempt at correct intonation and expression; some mistakes and/or hesitation.	7–8
A fair degree of fluency and accuracy in pronunciation despite quite a number of errors; some attempt at intonation and expression.	5–6
Conveys some meaning despite a lack of fluency and many errors; pronunciation strongly influenced by first language.	3–4
Many gross errors; frequently incomprehensible.	1–2

7.1.2 Completing the Speaking Examination Working Mark Sheet

The Speaking examination Working Mark Sheet can be found on the next page and should be photocopied as required.

1. Complete the information at the top of the form.
2. List the candidates in an order that will allow easy transfer of information to the computer-printed Internal Assessment Mark Sheet (MS1) (i.e., in candidate number order, where this is known).
3. (a) Test 1 Role Plays

Enter the Role Play Card number for each candidate in the column provided.
Enter the mark out of 3 for each task, in columns 1–10.

(b) Test 2 Topic Presentation/Conversation
  - (i) A mark out of 15 on Scale (a) Comprehension/responsiveness.
Enter the mark in column 11.
  - (ii) A mark out of 15 on Scale (b) Linguistic content.
Enter the mark in column 12.(c) Test 3 General Conversation
  - (i) A mark out of 15 on Scale (a) Comprehension/responsiveness.
Enter the mark in column 13.
  - (ii) A mark out of 15 on Scale (b) Linguistic content.
Enter the mark in column 14.(d) Impression

Enter the mark (maximum 10) in column 15.
4. Add the marks and enter the total in the column headed "Total Mark." Please double-check all addition as even small errors create problems.
5. Internal Moderation

Centers with large numbers of candidates are required to request permission from Cambridge if they wish to use more than one teacher/examiner to conduct and assess the Speaking examination for their candidates. This permission is only granted on the understanding that Internal Moderation must be carried out at the Center. This is in order to ensure that marks submitted by the Center are consistent for all candidates, regardless of which teacher/examiner conducted and assessed the examination. The final column on the Working Mark Sheet (Internal and/or External moderation) should be used to record the results of Internal Moderation, and details of Internal Moderation procedures must be enclosed with the materials for External Moderation.

7.2 Arrangements for External Moderation

- University of Cambridge International Examinations sends a computer-printed MS1 (internally assessed mark sheet) to each Center in late March for the June examination and in early October for the November examination, showing the name and candidate number of each candidate. Transfer the total mark for each candidate from the Working Mark Sheet to the MS1 Mark Sheet.
- The top copy of the MS1 Mark Sheet must be sent in the envelope provided to arrive as soon as possible at Cambridge. It must arrive no later than May 15 for the June examination and November 15 for the November examination.
- As an alternative to the submission of the MS1 Mark Sheet, Centres may submit Speaking marks in electronic format. Details of how to submit Speaking marks are provided in the Cambridge Administrative Guide.
- Complete the Cover Sheet for Moderation Sample, which can be found on the next page and should be photocopied as required.
- Record a sample of the candidates' work as specified in this syllabus and in the Teachers' Notes Booklet, which you will receive at the time of the examination. Send the recordings with a copy of the completed Working Mark Sheet and Cover Sheet for Moderation Sample, and the Moderator copy of the MS1 Mark Sheet, to reach Cambridge no later than May 15 for the June examination and November 15 for the November examination. Once the Speaking examination has been completed, do not wait until the end of the assessment period before sending these items.

Cambridge IGCSE Foreign Languages: Cover Sheet for Moderation

A copy of this cover sheet must be completed by the Centre and enclosed with the Moderation documentation and recorded sample to be despatched to Cambridge.

2 Tick to confirm that documentation has been checked for arithmetical and transcription errors:

- (i) Addition of marks on WMS has been checked and Total Mark is correct for each candidate.
 (ii) Total Mark for each candidate has been correctly transferred to the MS1 or computer.

3 Tick to confirm that the recording quality of Moderation samples has been checked:

- All sample recordings are clearly audible.
 Samples are recorded on standard size CDs/cassettes and recorded at normal speed.
 Digital recordings only: each candidate saved individually and files saved as .mp3.

4 Tick to confirm that the correct number of candidates has been submitted for moderation:

For Centres with 16 or fewer candidates, the following are enclosed:

- Recordings of the complete Speaking test for all candidates.

For Centres with 17 or more candidates, the following are enclosed:

- (i) Recordings of the complete Speaking test for 6 candidates across the range AND
 (ii) Recordings of the complete Speaking test for the first 10 candidates by candidate number.

5 CENTRES USING MORE THAN 1 EXAMINER — tick to confirm Internal Moderation procedures:

- Copy of permission from Cambridge to use more than 1 Examiner enclosed.
 Internal moderation carried out and details of Internal Moderation procedures enclosed.

8. Appendix B: Additional Information

8.1 Guided Learning Hours

Cambridge IGCSE syllabi are designed with the assumption that candidates have about 130 guided learning hours per subject over the duration of the course. (“Guided learning hours” include direct teaching and any other supervised or directed study time. They do not include private study by the candidate.)

However, this figure is for guidance only, and the number of hours required may vary according to local curricular practice and the candidates’ prior experience with the subject.

8.2 Recommended Prerequisites

We recommend that candidates who are beginning this course should have previously achieved a level corresponding to the requirements of the Key Stage 3 programme of study for Modern Foreign Languages within the National Curriculum for England.

8.3 Progression

Cambridge IGCSE Certificates are general qualifications that enable candidates to progress either directly to employment, or to proceed to further qualifications.

Candidates who are awarded grades C to A* in a Cambridge IGCSE foreign language are well prepared to follow courses leading to Cambridge International AS and A Level, or the equivalent, in the same language.

8.4 Component Codes

Because of local variations, in some cases component codes will be different in instructions about making entries for examinations and timetables from those printed in this syllabus, but the component names will be unchanged to make identification straightforward.

8.5 Grading and Reporting

Cambridge IGCSE results are shown by one of the grades A*, A, B, C, D, E, F, or G, indicating the standard achieved, Grade A* being the highest and Grade G the lowest. “Ungraded” indicates that the candidate’s performance fell short of the standard required for Grade G. “Ungraded” will be reported on the statement of results but not on the certificate.

8.6 Access

Reasonable adjustments are made for disabled candidates in order to enable them to access the assessments and to demonstrate what they know and what they can do. For this reason, very few candidates will have a complete barrier to the assessment. Information on reasonable adjustments is found in the Cambridge Handbook, which can be downloaded from the website www.cie.org.uk

Candidates who are unable to access part of the assessment, even after exploring all possibilities through reasonable adjustments, may still be able to receive an award based on the parts of the assessment they have taken.

8.7 Support and Resources

Copies of syllabi, the most recent question papers, and Principal Examiners' reports for teachers are on the Syllabus and Support Materials CD-ROM, which we send to all Cambridge International Schools. They are also on our public website—go to www.cie.org.uk/igcse. Click the Subjects tab and choose your subject. For resources, click "Resource List."

You can use the "Filter by" list to show all resources or only resources categorized as "Endorsed by Cambridge." Endorsed resources are written to align closely with the syllabus they support. They have been through a detailed quality-assurance process. As new resources are published, we review them against the syllabus and publish their details on the relevant resource list section of the website.

Additional syllabus-specific support is available from our secure Teacher Support website http://teachers.cie.org.uk, which is available to teachers at registered Cambridge schools. It provides past question papers and examiner reports on previous examinations, as well as any extra resources such as schemes of work (unit lesson plans) or examples of candidate responses. You can also find a range of subject communities on the Teacher Support website, where Cambridge teachers can share their own materials and join discussion groups.
