3 Traduisez en français:

I am a girl who loves football! It was warm and the sun was shining when I left the house last Friday. My friends had invited me to go to a football match to watch our local team. The other players represented a town 50 kilometres away.

Pierre and his sister Marie were waiting at the bus stop. I greeted them and when the bus arrived ten minutes later we got on. We saw lots of people who were evidently heading for the same destination.

A group of young men began to sing. In general, everyone was in a good mood. After a journey of a quarter of an hour, we stopped in front of the stadium where there was a large crowd of spectators.

At the start of the match the sun had disappeared and now it was pouring with rain. The conditions were not very pleasant. It was difficult to see exactly what was happening. Finally, as we were not enjoying ourselves, we left before the end.

It was cold and we were soaked to the skin so we decided to go into a nearby café. We ordered a hot chocolate. On getting home, I immediately went to have a shower. In future, I shall watch football on the television!
