Our school examinations began last Wednesday. I had revised all my subjects and went to bed early on Tuesday. On Wednesday morning I walked to school with my friends as usual. We were all feeling worried as the first examination was History and it was very difficult to understand.

We sat down in the classroom and began to write. Suddenly I saw something move under the chair of the blonde girl in front of me. A small grey mouse appeared and then ran towards the door.

Everyone screamed and jumped up. The teacher told us to sit down and continue with the test, but it was impossible. We tried to catch the mouse but it escaped.

The head teacher arrived and asked us to go home and return to complete the examination the next day. We wanted the mouse to come back as well!
