CLIENT: A National Wildlife Trust

An Exhibition on the Theme of 'Wildlife'

Scenario

You are invited to submit artwork for a National Wildlife Trust Exhibition to inform visitors about wildlife and their habitat. The artwork or artefact(s) can be displayed within a gallery space or outdoors.

Ever since humans have farmed, managed landscapes and created urban and city environments a wide range of wildlife has successfully adapted and often thrived in these spaces. Derelict areas, parks, gardens, houses, rivers and canals and tall buildings have provided homes for a host of wildlife including urban foxes, squirrels, badgers, hedgehogs and weasels, voles, shrews and rodents, bees and butterflies, toads, frogs and newts, seagulls, garden birds and birds of prey.

An important part of fulfilling the brief is to consider urban or rural wildlife. The artwork should derive from one of the starting points below:

- Rural landscape/urban environment/wetlands
- Science/nature
- Conservation
- Exploration/documentation
- Wildlife photography
- Migration/hibernation
- Camouflage/mimicry
- Ecosystem
- Locomotion

Opportunities for the development of a brief

You should use your research and personal interpretations to prepare, develop and present one brief or outcome(s) selected from the list below.

You are invited to submit 2D or 3D artwork in any medium.

The artwork must display connections between your work and that of others.

A local Art Gallery is inviting you to design and produce one of the following:

- 2D or 3D mixed media piece(s)
- Ceramic/textile sculpture, artefact or hanging
- Photographic/graphic artwork or Exhibition Poster/web page/app download
- Craft piece(s)/fashion garment/accessory for the gallery shop
- Outdoor artwork/kinetic/interactive art
- Video/multimedia installation
- A 2D painting
- Furniture/sculpture for the indoor public space or outdoors within the Art Gallery grounds.

All work must be clearly labelled with your name, candidate number, centre number, unit title and unit number.
